What I remember about Joanne...she was the salt of the earth. You always gave you straight talk and was an intelligent and especially capable colleague. She was kind and treated everyone respectfully and equally.

She was strong in her love of Lloyd and her family. She faced her long and trying battle with cancer without flinching so she could spend as much time with them as possible

We love you Joanne and will miss. May you rest in peace and enjoy the company of your family in heaven.
