

John M. Boni Jr.

June 16, 1939 - December 17, 2017

John was born in Ansonia, CT. He received his BA in English from UCONN, his MA in English at Northeastern and his PhD in English from the University of Denver. He taught Shakespeare for many years at CSU before moving into administration at various universities throughout the country. John returned to Fort Collins after suffering a major stroke in 1997. The Fort Collins community welcomed John and cared for him for the past 20 years. John loved the outdoors, good food, Jazz and Shakespeare. He is survived by his ex-wife, Elaine Boni, his daughter Christine Boni Neuens (Chuck), his Son Carl Boni (Kristal) and 4 grandchildren. A celebration of life will be held on Friday, December 22, at 1 pm at Good Samaritan Village, Fort Collins.

“ Sorry to hear that John has passed away. He was a very dear friend! I will miss visiting with him on Sunday morning. He always enjoyed going outside for a walk as I pushed his wheelchair we would look at flowers, birds, rabbits, but most of all just have a nice visit.

Dear Elaine, Christine and Carl,

John's obituary brought me back to the early 1960's, when he and Elaine lived on Huntington Avenue in Boston, directly across from the rising Prudential Center. Back then, John and I were graduate students at Northeastern. Fifty and more years have passed since that time, but I can vividly recall John's razor-sharp intellect and subtle sense of humor. He was the brightest student in our cohort--and that by the proverbial country mile. Following his career over the years, I always knew he would reach whatever goals he wanted. And he did. Please accept my condolences. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
