

John "Jack" Milton Fargher

January 7, 2018

John "Jack" Milton Fargher, 54, passed away peacefully, early January 7th, 2018 in Loveland, Colorado due to kidney failure. Jack was born in Omaha, NE, but lived in several states during his lifetime...Maryland, Arizona, Illinois, Nebraska and Colorado. Colorado and Arizona were his favorites because of the beautiful mountains. After a short stint in the Air Force, he owned and operated a successful hauling business. As a very young boy, he loved Batman and as an older boy, played baseball... a sport he loved until he died. Jack also, was an excellent Cribbage player and won many tournaments and trophies. He had a beautiful smile and a great sense of humor, always wanting people to laugh and be happy. He was loved much and we already miss him greatly. Jack is survived by his mother, two brothers, sisters and son.

“ I'm Daniel Beezley. I moved furniture for Jack. He really brightened my life up, and helped me love myself and love God, and discover myself as an adult. I always liked his cheerfulness, and love and joy and guidance he gave me as my employer.

He gave me the wonderful opportunity to get to meet and love his brother, Robert Fargher.

Moving for him was some of the best days of my life!

I miss you Jack! God loves you, I hope to see you in God's kingdom someday!
