

Joshua Roy Dalrymple

January 19, 1982 - November 15, 2014

Joshua Roy Dalrymple was born on a snowy, cold day, January 19, 1982, in Fort Collins, CO. Although he was raised in the Salt Lake City area, he moved back to Fort Collins as a teenager, and lived there from then on.

Josh was a fun-loving guy who enjoyed fishing, camping, country music, his Harley and most of all being with his family. He honored his Scottish heritage by going to the Scottish-Irish Festival in Estes Park each year with his mother. He was a great jewelry maker and made several unique pieces for those he loved. Wolves, mystical dragons, and swords fascinated him. As a child he was a sweet brother who played with GI Joes and Barbies with his sisters. He was proud of the military service of both his grandfathers. His wonderful smile was contagious, and he is loved by all.

His too-soon passing from this life on November 15, 2014 is greatly mourned by those he left behind: His love, Nickole. his daughter, Lily and son, Joshua, along with stepchildren, Michael, Hailey, Arriana, and Gloria; parents, Cynthia McClure and Michael ( Linda) Dalrymple; sisters, Nikki (Jeffrey) Proctor, Lara McClure, and Tiffany Terry. Also many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends will miss him mightily.

A memorial service will be held at 6:00 pm, Friday November 21st at the LDS Church Chapel at 600 E. Swallow Rd. Fort Collins, CO. Donations may be made online to the Joshua Dalrymple Memorial Fund.

“ Hi dad its me guess who's in eighth grade now I'm almost in highschool I miss you I wish you weren't gone I love you, wish you were here to see me and my siblings grow because they're adults now which is pretty cool, also wyatt gave me your hat plus he told me that Dalton is pretty much my horse now which is really cool, everybody misses you very much and I do too, my depression has pretty much faded I still have to take my meds tho. thank you for listening I guess it just helps to think I'm talking to you because its like I'm talking to my father even if you passed away when I was two. I wish you didn't take your life but I guess you thought it would help but if I was able to tell you one sentence I would say suicide doesn't end your pain it passes it on, I've told people that multiple times and they ended up not committing which makes me feel happier. because I know I stopped people from committing.

Joshua - No one is deleting your messages. Your sisters have not posted on this website. It might be that they did not click on "share" to make it public? Something with their internet? We have to approve all messages as the owner of this site. I have looked at all you have posted and they are all posted. If you would like to reach out to me to speak to me about your concerns, I would be happy to discuss anything with you. Or if your sisters would like to reach out to me with their messages and I will place them on our site. Stephanie Goes - Business Manager
