

Joyce Whidden

July 15, 1947 - May 18, 2010

Joyce Whidden, aged 62, passed away the morning of May 18, 2010 at the Pathways Hospice Center at McKee Medical Center following a brief illness. Joyce is survived by her husband, Stephen, and her daughters Bianca Katz of Fort Collins, and Isha Braughton and Isha's two sons of Stewartsville, NJ. Joyce was the director of New Bridges, a daytime homeless shelter in Fort Collins. She had a love of stained glass, enamels, aquarium fish and landscaping. We ask that in lieu of flowers, you please donate to the Pathways Hospice Care Center www.pathways-care.org/ in Joyce's memory. A private Memorial Service will be held later.

“ I worked with Joyce at New Bridges for awhile and I am so sorry to hear that she passed. As a young woman I learned so much from her.
