“ I am so saddened to learn of Kitty's passing. Kitty and I were first cousins; her mother and my father were siblings. Kitty and I were born in Jacobus, PA within two weeks of each other. She and I played together from the time we were very young. She was born as the middle child of three girls and I was the oldest of three girls. She and I were in the same elementary school classes from grades 1 through 8. Kitty and I were also in the same brownie/girl scout troops and Sunday School classes. My family moved to Arizona in 1959 and Kitty and I lost contact. Kitty visited Sedona, AZ with her mother and we briefly re-connected. Kitty eventually moved to Sedona, but never got in touch with me until her sister Bonnie and, her husband George, visited a few years ago. After that I continued to call Kitty for afternoon tea. We met for tea several times. I remember the last time we were having tea, she mentioned her daughter, Jennifer, wanted her to move to Fort Collins, CO. I never heard from Kitty again. I was so shocked to learn of Kitty's passing in the local Sedona Red Rock News. During one of our visits, Kitty told me how much she enjoyed volunteering for the Sedona Public Library. Having spent 42 years as a school librarian/media specialist, I loved the fact that Kitty enjoyed volunteering at our local public library. I extend heartfelt condolences to all of Kitty's family members. May the many memories hold her in your hearts.

With deepest sympathy,
Tana Williams
