“ Condolences to Hash and to her family. Through her good works I met Kathy and she fast became friends and like a sister to me. I spent my college career knowing her and Hash and their beloved dogs. She was amazing, funny, supportive of ones efforts, encouraging and a true friend in many ways like a sibling. I spent hours being around her. It was hard to end a conversation. Later her and Hash became my son's God Parents. My mother loved visiting her as well. I had tried several times to see how she was through the years. My son thankfully got to see her while he was still in school. I recently sent her pics of him and his son now. She will always forever be in my mind and heart. She was the friend you could talk to, and have fun with. I found out today on her birthday that she passed in December. It greatly saddened me and my intended visit this coming summer will not be. I can only send my deepest sympathy to Hash and her family, relatives and friends. She was truly liked, respected and loved by many. I can still see her laughing about something. Now she can be free. It is hard to lose someone like her. She truly loved others and life and inspired.
