“ Dedicated to Kendra Rose Schwartz

*Evening sounds of this long night feeling the cool breeze and crickets rounds contemplative prayers of her life
give way to her travel and end of her strife.*

*For I did not walk in her path
yet did delight
in the glory of her light.
Now sadness is part of the grieving goodbye
We can no longer look into her eyes.*

*Yet moon beams and dream schemes will bring her to heart
From this earthly path we will depart when joined in the next path we will see her heavenly journey where she will greet us and love will be the key.*

“ It is with deep sadness we all say goodbye to Kendra. She was a deep thinker, a talented artist and I know there was so much more to come. My daughter, Laine, bought one of Kendra's acrylic paintings of a giraffe titled "Animals I Will Never Own"...a happy and whimsical wall piece that will always be cherished. To Pam, Steve, Becky, Julia, Scott and everyone who loved her--Kendra will always be in your hearts; hold tight to all of the happy memories. Wishing you all the time in the world for you to find peace with this difficult loss.

“ My first memory of Kendra is at 4 months. She was in my care and she was a lively happy baby jumping away in my kitchen doorway in the johnny jump up, very easy to take care of her.
Being close in age to my daughter we spent time with her in our household. She was always easy to be around and very down to earth as a growing girl.

“ The shop was open seven days a week and I looked forward to Kendra's visits. Often we would enjoy a patio dinner or take in a play on student night
From her early years, Kendra Rose lived with an energetic determination in all of her pursuits. Surrounded by a loving family, uplifted by her church, community and friends, she was dedicated to her "Circle Of Life". Kendra excelled in her creative expressions to "Touch Our Souls".
She rocked my world. Love Kate

“ My enduring memory of our sweet Kendra is how much she loved catching fish with her aunt Penny. How she loved taking naps on the porch at our house in the Adirondacks cuddling with the brown kittens. I can close my eyes and see her now, at the airport to fly back to Colorado, with her high black boots and floppy hat. So lovely. When we said goodbye dear Kendra I didn't know you would fly so far away and take such a big piece of my heart when you went. I love you Kendra Rose and will forever miss you.
