“ Heather- it's been years (GCC). I am so sorry to hear about your father. As you may remember, we worked at the hill together- that laugh was priceless. When I read the segment about his nickname "beaver", I thought of you always being so eager to succeed. You and you brother made him proud! Take care girl.

“ Ken and Heather, Sorry to hear of Kens passing, He was a great co worker and freind, He was a great teacher who helped me learn everything to know about being a denture tech. He was always there as a freind I will miss his great sense of humor and the times together at the lab.I have missed him since he has left Ironwood and more than ever since he has passed on.

My Thoughts and Prayers go out to the McCauley family

“ My big brother Ken. He was a great big brother, and I will miss him. I am glad the pain has stopped for him. I have so many great brother type memories, and I thought I would share one.

Ken had a red mustang, and man that mustang was on sharp ride. Its was a 1968, chrome rims. They nicked named him " Beaver" in high school because the woodshop teacher seen Ken trying to get wood out of the scarp wood barrel and he had to bend over and almost get into the can to get the wood. The shop teacher said " McCauley what are you a beaver", and that nick name stuck.

As time goes on the pain will ease, but the memories of Ken will always been there. My heart goes out to Kenny, and Heather, his son and daughter and to my family, as we all deal with the loss.

“ We haven't seen Ken for a few months and have been thinking of him all the while he was in the middle of his fight. He had a rare sense of humor, no matter what the situation. Please know that we will treasure our memories of him, especially when the bright sun comes out after a cloudy day. God bless you Kenny and your family.

Sincerely,

Dan and Sandi McManman, Ironwood, MI
