

Kimberly Ann Leonowicz

July 3, 1966 - August 25, 2015

Kimberly Ann Leonowicz, 49, died in Fort Collins, Colorado on August 25, 2015. Kim was born on July 3, 1966 in Brockton, Massachusetts and was the daughter of the beloved Marlene Perry.

Kim brought humor, love, and light into all situations. She was kind, generous, and never turned away an opportunity to help someone. She will be missed more than words can describe by her family and friends.

Kim preceded the death of her soul mate and husband, David Leonowicz; they married in 1983 in East Bridgewater, Massachusetts. Kim is also survived by her children: Brendan, Jessica, Chelsea, and Jake.

A memorial for family and close friends will be held on Monday August 31, 2015.

Tribute Wall

“ Kimberly Ann Leonowicz

October 25, 2022 at 06:14 PM

“ Diane McCarthy lit a candle in memory of Kimberly Ann Leonowicz

Diane McCarthy - September 04, 2015 at 12:10 AM

Thoughts and prayers for Dave, the kids and all of Kim's family.

Diane McCarthy - September 04, 2015 at 12:19 AM

“ My deep sympathy for all of Kim's family and especially for Jake who was the apple of her eye. Kim and I are cousins and had reconnected through Facebook. I am glad we had a chance to get to know each other again. We had an opportunity for several long telephone conversations that I will cherish. I will be keeping her family in my prayers.
Deb Husted

Deb Husted - August 31, 2015 at 12:38 PM

“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Kimberly Ann Leonowicz.

---

August 31, 2015 at 05:19 AM

“ alfred eastburn jr purchased the Crystal Cross Bouquet for the family of Kimberly Ann Leonowicz.

---

alfred eastburn jr - August 29, 2015 at 02:55 PM

“ Doreen Caricchio lit a candle in memory of Kimberly Ann Leonowicz

---

Doreen Caricchio - August 29, 2015 at 02:33 PM

“ When Kimmy lived with us and became part of the family in the eighties, mom always said finally i have a kid that looks like me - two brunettes in a home of blondes, we shared a room. Saturdays mom worked that meant room inspections by Dad. I have always hated putting away laundry on fridays and everything had to be done by inspection Saturday. At first I would toss my clean clothes into the hamper ...Kimmy thought i was loosing it and would put them away for me before dad came down. Then, when we'd wait to the last minute we tossed them on the top of the canopies attached to our beds. totally busted. To get on dad's good side Kimmy had the "great" idea of getting Dad white gloves from her work to go with his inspection process....we laughed so hard!!!! Finally, we just cleaned the damn room.

At times, we'd loose contact, but always finding one another and picking up right where we left off....hundreds of hand written letters, visits in Orlando and when i spent a couple weeks of summer in Colorado, telephone calls and later Facebook- and still letters :) I will miss you more than words can express. It still feels so unreal. It's like in a few weeks or months I'll get a letter, voicemail or FB message to say everything is ok it was a big misunderstanding. . . . I love you sis... always ~ no matter what. I'm happy you and mom are catching up ...I'm sure picking up right where you left off like a day was never missed. Jake, Jessica, Brandy, Chelsea and Dave (John C M Camp) you are in my thoughts and prayers. Having lost a mom too soon, I feel your loss and pain and wish you lots of hugs and happy memories to comfort you.

---

Nickie Bazinet - August 29, 2015 at 02:28 PM

MM

“ I was often referred to by my initials, Mel. Kim, my daughter-in-law, changed that to Mil (mother-in-law).
I loved her sense of humor.
She was a fan of my cooking and often phoned for a recipe.
Then there was the "stupid glass" story. She misunderstood what I said about Steuben Glass.
I will miss her.

Mary Ellen Mahoney (Dave's Mom)

---

Mary Ellen Mahoney - August 29, 2015 at 10:44 AM

ES

“ R.I.P. Kimberly, I have never met you but Sherry loved you , and that told me that you were a wonderful person. A special prayer will be coming your way and following you to your journey.

---

EILENE SOO - August 28, 2015 at 07:52 PM