

Landon Paul Sager

February 17, 2020

Our beloved Landon P. Sager left this world on February 17, 2020 at the age of 28, after a long courageous battle with brain cancer. At the time of his passing, he was in the comfort of his own home surrounded by his amazing partner of 5 years, Elise Gusinde-Duffy and her mother Tini, his mother Tracy, and little sister Sydney.

Landon was born September 17, 1991 in Fort Collins, Colorado to Tracy D. Sager with older brother, and lifelong best friend, Morgan Sager anxiously awaiting on the sidelines. He was later joined by “hims” loving baby sister, Sydney Sager. As a child, Landon shared wholeheartedly in his big brother’s love for Power Rangers, always eagerly obtaining the role of the blue ranger, and spent hours on end playing Transformers and building Legos with Sydney. Landon graduated from Rocky Mountain High School in 2010 and continued on to Front Range Community College to pursue a career in the automotive industry. Landon had a passion for fast cars, mountain drives, snowboarding, and camping with friends. He loved listening to and making his own music. He enjoyed attending EDM shows with friends and had even aspired to play shows of his own someday.

On March 6, 2013 Landon became a father to his beautiful daughter, Hadyn Sager. It was the happiest day of his life. Landon loved his daughter with every fiber of his being. She was his world. Hadyn always said that her daddy was her best friend, as she was his. Landon was at his very best when he was with Hadyn and took his role as her protector, her playmate, her adventure seeker, and her partner in laughter very seriously. Landon wanted nothing more than to be here for his Hadyn.

Landon was an amazing daddy, son, grandson, brother, nephew, cousin, and friend. He will never be forgotten and will live on forever in our hearts. Along with his mother, brother, sister, daughter, and partner, Landon is also survived by his grandmother Margaret Sager, Aunt Terri Sager, Uncle Norm (Lauren) Sager, cousins Derek and Dilan Faucher, brother-in-law Josh Wilcox, father Paul Ingersoll, brother Nick Ingersoll, and many more aunts, uncles, cousins and amazing friends. Landon was preceded in death by his grandfather Norman O. Sager, aka Pop Pop, who we know greeted him with a huge smile and open arms.

Landon's Celebration of Life will be held on February 28th, from 5pm-9pm at the Drake Centre in Fort Collins. The family requests that you each bring a smile on your face and a fun story about Landon to share. We will be providing glow sticks for everyone and we ask, if you can, to wear Landon's favorite color (Tiffany blue) in support.

“ Landon will always be one of my best friends!! He and I met in such a sad point in my life! He reached out and touched my heart. I will never forget the first day I met him and I won't ever stop counting that day as a blessing.

Landon always knew when to joke with me and when to just sit in silence and be in thought.

My favorite part about Landon was he let me always just be me! Whether it was snacking on junk food and he made comments or us laughing at YouTube he never made me feel ashamed to be myself!

He taught me real friends are very rare; and finding people who connect to your heart are even more rare.

I am so grateful for all the time, laughter and comfort his friendship brought.

More than anything I am grateful for the lessons and advice he shared. I am very heartbroken and will always miss being the annoying Utah neighbor.

Landon was such a unique and beautiful soul and one I won't ever forget. No one has been so welcoming to a new friend or even two... no one has ever kept it so real... and especially never has a friend let me haul over my pets to hang out at their house... just so I could spend more time with a friend.

Our friendship will forever stick with me. I am so heartbroken and send virtual hugs to the family in this time of such hurt. I really can't express how sorry I am.

“ I remember Landon as a happy round faced boy enjoying time at his grandmother's (Mimi) home in Estes. He was a quite boy until engaged and then he was a chatterbox. I didn't know him well but from what I read here he was a strong man which undoubtedly came from his dad, Paul who is one of the strongest people I know. Our heart goes out to you and your family as you suffer through yet another tragedy in your strong, quiet and graceful style. We love you!

Growing up, our grandpa, "Pop Pop", was an amazing father figure for both myself and my brothers, Morgan and Landon, while our bio fathers were mostly or completely absent from our lives. Pop Pop taught Landon his love of cars and how to fix them. He raised us to be strong willed with a mushy and loving underside. He taught Landon responsibility and how to take amazing care of the women in his life. Landon always referred to Pop Pop as his role model and his hero. ❤️
