

Lauren Kay Moore

September 6, 2025

Lauren Kay Moore, beloved wife, devoted mother, and steadfast friend, of Fort Collins, Colorado passed away on September 6, 2025, with family by her side after a courageous seven-year battle with colon cancer. She was 39.

Lauren was born on February 19, 1986, in El Paso, Texas, the youngest of five children. She enjoyed the benefits of being the baby of the family, though she never liked the title. She had a happy childhood growing up in the 1990's when kids rode bikes, played outside all day and had neighborhood adventures with friends she would treasure throughout her life.

After graduating from Franklin High School, she attended college in Rexburg, Idaho earning her associate's degree. She then moved to Provo, Utah, to complete a program in aesthetics. While attending Brigham Young University – Idaho, Lauren met the love of her life, Evan Moore, when they were paired together in a campus social group. They often joked that they were MFEO (made for each other) taken from a corny line in one of Lauren's favorite movies. They were married in the Salt Lake City LDS Temple on December 20, 2007, a blustery day that turned into a snowy night made perfect with thousands of Christmas lights twinkling through the storm outside the reception hall.

Lauren and Evan lived in Idaho and Virginia before settling in Colorado, where they have spent the past 13 years. She worked in the self-care industry for a time before stepping into the role she wanted more than anything – motherhood.

Her deep faith in Jesus Christ shaped every part of her life. A devoted member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, she served in many different capacities, teaching children, youth, and adults, working in the Fort Collins LDS Temple, and leading women and girls to understand their divine worth and improve their relationship with their Savior. Even during her illness, she served with dedication and zeal, always believing that she could do all things through Jesus Christ.

Lauren loved to decorate her home and wanted to make it not only beautiful, but a place where all would feel welcome and comfortable. It thrilled her to visit home stores and garage sales hunting for and finding the perfect item to complete the room, wall, or mantle...as long as it was on sale! She was an avid journal keeper, filling stacks of books documenting her family's events, adventures and blessings from God. She wrote a blog and kept mounds of photo albums full of wonderful memories. She loved music and would often play the piano or guitar or sing at the top of her lungs with a pretend microphone until her children would roll their eyes and say, "Mom, you're so embarrassing!" much to her delight.

Lauren was endlessly creative and resourceful, always putting together the best Halloween costumes and helping her children create A+ school projects. Lauren made learning a central part of her family's life. She spent many hours with her children at the library, instilling a love of reading. She enjoyed taking them to museums and musical productions, enriching their lives through education and the arts. She loved the sunshine and being outside and in the past few years, she became a watercolor artist and was inspired to paint the beautiful flowers and landscapes in the world around her.

Above all, Lauren's greatest joy in life was being a mother and caring for her family. Lauren's devotion to her husband and children was unwavering and unmatched. She placed their well-being above her own. Lauren is survived by Evan, her husband of nearly 18 years, their children, Simone (14), Harrison (12), and Eleanore (10); her parents, Eric and Cheri Adams; brothers, Aaron and Ryan Adams; and sisters, Alison Robison and Kristen Graham. She leaves behind a legacy of faith, joy, beauty, and love that will continue to bless untold lives.

Funeral services will be held at 12 p.m. on Friday, September 12, 2025, at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 6521 Carmichael Street, Fort Collins, CO 80528. Friends and loved ones may visit with the family from 10:45 -11:45 a.m. prior to the service. Interment will follow at Grandview Cemetery.

Because of Lauren's devotion to learning and her hopes for her children's future, in lieu of flowers the family invites those who wish to honor her memory to consider a contribution to an education fund for her beloved children, helping to carry forward the dreams she held for them. Contributions can be submitted here: <https://everloved.com/life-of/lauren-moore/donate/>

The service will also be streamed via Zoom: <https://zoom.us/j/98629755032>

“ Dear Eric and Cheri, we were so saddened to hear of Lauren's passing. Ever since we saw you a year ago she has been in our thoughts. We knew her when she was very young and she was always so full of life. It is comforting to know that she is free from the pain and burden she has been carrying for so many years. Please feel our love and give a hug to your children from us. Love, Paul and Stephanie Condie

“Lauren is one of my dearest friends. I'm so grateful for the summer we got to spend together while she was a nanny in VA. We actually didn't know each other but her nanny called her previous nanny (one of my coworkers) and asked her to call Lauren. My coworker asked me if I would call instead since I lived closer to Lauren. I did and we were inseparable after that. We went to church together to the singles ward every week, we went to the beach with friends, we went to NYC with friends and saw the Phantom of the Opera together. We had so many girls nights together. We spent a lot of time with my family - they absolutely love Lauren. That summer was one of my most favorite summers.

Later, Lauren was a bridesmaid at my wedding and had her first date with Evan that night. :)

Over the years I was always so excited to get an email from Lauren. We didn't really text but we would send long emails to each other. She was always so kind to ask how I was and take interest in whatever I was doing. I loved hearing about her life and joys and family and hopes and dreams. I'll truly miss sending emails to each other.

I admire Lauren's faith and hope as she battled cancer all these years. Her testimony is so strong and she loves her Savior so much. I'm grateful to have known that side of her too.

Lauren is so loved and will be so missed. I know we will see her again one day. That will be a wonderful day.

*Much Love,
Christine Noonan*

“ I was so blessed to have been Lauren's teacher during middle school. She was so creative and loved learning. In her journals she would share her love of the church and was one of many LDS students I had in my classes. Their combined love for Jesus led to my baptism. I will never forget her.

“ So so many of the missionaries from the El Salvador Belize mission prayed so so much for Lauren. Because of our deep love for her parents who were leaders of the mission, it was only natural for all of us to love Lauren and fervently pray for her.💔 With all of us so far away, we know that our prayers are the very most helpful thing we can do for all of her family.💔💔💔💔Prayer helps everything everything.💖💖
