“ I have fond memories of Larry and Dottie on the walking trail, Larry was like a kid full of enthusiasm or full of God in the original meaning. Many people express their faith by what they don't do, Larry expressed his by what he did, he was quick to welcome, quick to love, quick to share, quick to pray When Larry was diagnosed with cancer his response was to go to Spain and walk the Camino de Santiago. Dottie our arms are around you and our prayers uphold you

“ I will miss him with all my heart. Seeing Larry every couple of weeks was always the highlight of my day. I so loved hearing about his adventures and antics, and the way he talked about his Dottie with such affection. Always smiling and a wonderful in conversation, Larry was a pleasure to have known and loved. May he rest in everlasting peace Holly E. RN

Larry was a pro-life warrior. I first met him in the 80's when he and I were both active in Operation Rescue. He was avid about his faith and loved to gather people together to pray devotional prayers to the Sacred Heart, Mary, St. Joseph, other Saints and Angels. The Rosary was particularly dear to him. His smile and his presence at daily Mass and around the parish will be greatly missed. Barbara Martin

My uncle was quick with a laugh, was genuinely interested in people, and a man of unwavering faith. I appreciated his active life-style and his zest for physical challenges. My brother Brian recalled how Larry was determined to water ski when he was well into his 70's. I will miss him but his spirit continues. Mike McEnany
