“ Words can't even describe, how much I miss you! You were taken away from us 5 years ago, and not a day has gone by where I haven't thought about you. You were always my rock when I was weak and even though I always knew this, I never realized it until you were gone. You gave more to us then I ever realized and I just want you to know how much I truly miss you. I know you know, how much I Miss you and Dee, as you hear me talk to you Ladies everyday, as you both sit side by side on my mantle. I'd give anything to have you both here with us! You're both in a better place though and one day I will join you both. Until then, just know I love you both and I can't wait to see you both again! I love Mom, I always have and I always will 🥰
