“ I met Lisa at a party in my senior year as an exchange student at Northwest High school in 1993. We have been close friends ever since and I even consider Lisa and her family as part of my own family. At the time when we met, I was rather homesick as I didn't quite find my place in the family in which I was staying. Lisa, being Lisa, engaged and asked her parents if they could help out, and it wasn't long after I was adopted and celebrated Thanksgiving with the Reiss family as their new "family member". I have Lisa and her family to thank for that the rest of my stay in the US became a fantastic period in my life. To me this story describes Lisa really well; a beautiful, caring person with the biggest of hearts and a gift to spread light and laughter around her.

“ We are so blessed that Jeremy brought Lisa into our lives! So thankful for the 11 years of friendship we had together. Lisa had a beautiful voice, an infectious smile, and a heart of gold. It was only a month ago she was helping our daughter Kailey with a science presentation on Brain Cancer. Her love for our children was as strong as it was for Cooper and Norah. She will forever be remembered in our hearts. Our thoughts and prayers are with Lisa's family, Jeremy, Cooper and Norah. - Love The Rogers

“ I was Lisa's piano teacher and have known her practically all her life! All the things I read about her as an adult were true about her as a child. Lisa did not like to practice but she was one of the most talented young musicians I've ever had the privilege of teaching. She was a wonderful young woman, as she grew up and I really enjoyed listening to her sing. She had a pure sound, much like her mother's. I would expect her musicianship is probably found somewhere in Cooper and Norah's musical abilities. I'm so sorry she will miss seeing them grow up.
Much Love and Prayers to all the family!

“ I had the opportunity to be in Art Class with Lisa in my senior year as an exchange student. Lisa was so caring and nice she made me feel like I was home. She was that kind of person you always want to meet to make your day brighter.

“ As a CASA Supervisor, I worked with Lisa on several cases. I always loved it when I read that Lisa was the caseworker. She was easy to work with, down to earth and she always treated everyone with respect. She told us she was going to be quitting the department. She said she was never home and she and her husband had talked. "We will figure it out," he had said and she was SO excited and happy to be able to be a "stay at home" mom for awhile. She had a laundry list of things she wanted to do with her children. Lisa was truly one of a kind. She had a great sense of humor, cared for children and families and had a knack of always making people around her feel comfortable. It is hard to believe that she is gone and my prayers go out to her family. Her pain is gone and she is surely looking out for the people she loved as their guardian angels!

“ Lisa was the cutest little girl. She was so friendly and active. We all enjoyed watching her as she "worked the crowd" at a large family reunion. We haven't been able to see her in recent years, but we will miss that bright smile. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family daily. Marilyn Belcher
