Born March 17, 1936 in Greeley, Colorado (La Colonia), grew up and married in Denver. In Denver he graduated from Annunciation High School in Denver and graduated from Regis College in Denver. He was a loving husband for 50 years to Molly Ortiz and loving father to their five children: Michael Ortiz, Melinda (Patrick) Slade, Patrick (Barbara) Ortiz, Christopher Ortiz, and Adam (Tonya) Ortiz. Lloyd and Molly had eight grand children Joseph Slade, Andrew Slade, Carina Slade (Melinda), Thomas Ortiz, Leah Ortiz, Zachary Ortiz (Patrick), Collin Ortiz, Cory Ortiz (Adam). Lloyd is also survived by his two siblings Edwina (Ralph) Gillette, and Gerald Ortiz, and relatives. He was a professional musician for many years in Denver. His government job transfers took him and his family to several states and ended with 36 years in Tucson Arizona. Throughout his life he loved and enjoyed doing work for God by helping others in many ways, at church, community, employment, friends, neighbors, developmentally disabled children and much more. He enjoyed music, fishing, tennis but most of all

being with his family.

“ *Pat, Melinda, Carina, Andrew and Joe,
Please know that all of you are in my prayers and that beautiful things in our life are beautiful because they remain in our hearts and memories long after they are gone.*

“ *To Molly Juarez Ortiz who was a classmate at West High School and Gerry Ortiz, with whom I served, along with Lloyd, in the 101st Army Band for 8 years, and as a fellow student at Regis College:
Although we have been separated, geographically, I have thought about you fondly over many years. We have indeed been blessed and enriched by having had Lloyd in our lives -- and that beauty is alive in our precious memories.*

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Melinda and her family at this sorrowful time. God has welcomed Lloyd into His arms amid Heavenly trumpets and songs of joy! Only we here on Earth miss him so!!! Much love, Margi and Gregg

“ To the family of Lloyd Ortiz:

My deepest sympathies go out to all of you during this difficult time. Lloyd was a devoted and caring family man. I have fond memories of living in Tucson and getting to know Lloyd, Molly, Mike, Melinda, Pat, Chris and Adam. One of the best things to happen to me when we moved from Colorado to Tucson was knowing Lloyd and his family.

Even though we have moved on and distance separates us, the bond of family remains. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

I was blessed to have known my Mom's cousin Lloyd. Vaya con Dios.
