

Lorraine Clair

January 30, 1928 - April 14, 2010

Lorraine E. St. Clair died peacefully at her home after a brief battle with cancer on April 14, 2010. She was surrounded by loving family and friends. Lorraine was born on January 30, 1928 in Chicago, IL. She married William "Bill" St. Clair on October 28, 1969. In 1995 Bill and Lorraine retired and discovered Ft. Collins, Colorado, which they proudly called their home for the past 15 years. Bill preceded Lorraine in death on May 8, 2008. Lorraine is survived by daughters: Sue and her three children - Kim, Kate, and Daniel; Linda and husband Steve and her two sons David and Kristofer; Pattie and husband Greg and their two daughters Emily and Hannah; two sons Bob and Jim and Jim's son Zachary; and fourteen great-grandchildren. She had many interests including: playing bridge, reading, crafting, sewing, volunteering, and traveling. She loved spending time with friends and family. She was a devoted wife, loving mother, adoring Grandma and wonderful friend. She will be forever missed! A memorial service will be held on Saturday, April 17, at 1:00 P.M. at the First Presbyterian Church located at 531 So. College Ave in Fort Collins. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations in her honor be given to The Food Bank of Fort Collins or Pathways Hospice.

“ Mom, I hope to see you in Heaven, with Bill. You always helped me. When my path was unclear, you just kept being my Mom. I think your life was a testament to dedication, purpose, and perseverance.

I asked you if you knew Jesus, and you said yes. Then I asked you if you were scared. You calmly and in sound mind said you were not. This gave me assurance that your eternal rest was coming.

If I have one regret, it is all the stuff with Zac and myself. We could have tried harder and never quit on being a family.

I was happy too that you died at home where you felt safe and secure with all your family at your bedside. Love. for ever Mom. Your son Jim.
