“ Our mother was amazing. She loved us deeply and gave us all she had. Mom and I would take long trips on weekends when I finally came back to Colorado. I have so many great memories of our time discovering co, wy, nm and CA. Mom gave me the gift of giving and caring for others. Her hugs would heal any pain I felt. She listened and helped me grow, even when I didn't want to. There is a part of my heart that will forever be hers. Mama, my love, I miss you and will see you again. Give daddy hugs for me.

You made me strong when I was weak, made me laugh when I cried and taught me the best cuss words ;) The best memory I have of my love is...when I really thought I was able to talk back to her I was laying on my stomach watching cartoons talking trash to her and outta no were she tanned my a.. with a hanger and put me right back in my place!! On one more note my apologies on aunt Becky's post she asked me to proof read and I failed her 😭* “ Aunt Lucy, I wish there were words that can articulate how I feel. I am forever grateful to have been able to experience your unconditional love. Makes you leaving a bit harder but I know you are in Heaven stirring up a ruckus, drinking non-diet Pepsi and eating chocolate cake with Grandma and Grandpa.

See you on the other side. Love you always and forever.

“ Our mother was an amazing mother and father. Dad passed at a very young age so mom stood up strong and made us proud. She felt like she could never give us enough but she gave us more than we deserved. She always put us first and loved each one of us differently. She understood we all had different needs. Her grandkids were her greatest joy. I smile knowing she is dancing with Jesus and back with dad and her parents.

“ Mom, my favorite memories are when you made me take grandma Vigil to get groceries and she would sit outside with her purse and lipstick just waiting for me. Also when we would go make food on her wood stove and hang out, those days were the best! You will always be my world mom! I love you! Try not to be too much trouble and hold your tongue. Thank you for being such a wonderful grandma to our kids. For the memories and for being you, forever in my heart love you mom!!
