“ One of the best Memories of Marcelino that I have of him is when he first came to visit us in Colorado and the way his eyes lit up at all the open space and all the lakes, he loved it here even more once he moved here, he always said there is so much to see here from lakes to rivers, to Elk and Eagles and lets not forget the hawks, he could picture himself fishing and just relaxing in the beautiful outdoors and that's when Alfred and I purchased the boat so that they could go fishing, and though he was an it last summer with us he was never able to fish as he wanted, unfortunately he began having more bad days then good and summer ended and now so has his life. He will be missed this coming summer and many summers after that and when we are fishing, I know as the sun twinkle's of the water as it so often does that it's him twinkling and smiling down on us and yelling "CATCH ONE FOR ME" !
