“ It's hard to land on just one, there are so many. I met him in his second round of interviews (group interview) at North Range Behavioral Health. Eventually, he and I shared an office. We made work fun with plenty of laughs and changing up song lyrics. I'd say another favorite memory was "porching it" with him on my front porch with tunes, laughs and good company.

“ I didn't know Mark well, but what I knew of him, he seemed like a very nice and considerate person. I wish I got to know him better. RIP Mark.
