

Mark Sidman

December 18, 2022

Mark Sidman, loving husband, and father, sadly passed away on December 18, 2022, at the age of 57. Mark is survived by his wife of 38 years, Pam Sidman; Children: Bobby Bryan (Amber), Angel Phillips (Anthony), and Steven Phillips; Grandchildren: Analea Everard (Kevin), Hailey Everard, Emily Bryan, and Bradley Bryan; Mother: Sherry (Greenfield) Hogg; Sister: Toni Allen and multiple nephews and nieces. Mark is preceded in death by his father Pat Hogg and brother Scott Sidman. Mark was born on November 3, 1965, in Boulder, Colorado to Sherry and Pat Hogg. He spent his childhood in Longmont, CO, Glenrock, WY, and Casper, WY.

Mark met his wife Pam in Merced, CA. From there they moved to Casper, WY where they purchased their first home and raised their children together. Pam was Mark's best friend and lifelong partner - they were inseparable. He was a modest man, who enjoyed the simplicities of life. Mark enjoyed spending time with his children, nieces, nephews, and other relatives. With a love of music, Mark enjoyed playing the guitar and keyboard with family and friends. He often sang a song he wrote titled "The Keys to Believe," which was well-known within the family. Mark loved football and always cheered on his beloved San Francisco 49ers with his wife at his side. He was an incredible husband, father, son, and uncle, and will be deeply missed.

A celebration of life will be held on April 22, 2023, in Casper, WY to honor

Mark. More details will be provided by the family in the coming months.
