“ Dear Carrie and Fran,
After a long and courageous battle, your Dad is finally at rest. He was very fortunate to have your love and physical support over the past decade. You demonstrated true love and devotion by coordinating your own living arrangements keeping in mind how to best accomodate him. This has to be a huge loss for you and the kids, but please know you are in our thoughts and prayers st this time.

“ Hazel, Carrie, and David,
I was very saddened to read of Marvs' passing in the Today paper. I always had such a respect for Marv, and enjoyed his great sense of humor. He always made me feel comfortable in the White household. And besides, he has a great first name. Our dad's, (Marvs) are together in a better place, and at peace. My thoughts and prayers are with you all in this time of sorrow.

“ To the Whites. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. "Mr. White" was one of kind. I'll never forget when he discovered that my middle name was "David" everytime I would see him he would say, "Well if it isn't Scott DAVID Wells..." With a huge smile on his face! As kid, it was the only time I heard my middle name when I wasn't in trouble. It is a memory I will cherish for the rest of my life. God bless him and God bliss you.

“ We may have lost touch with you, but now is the time to reconnect. We remember Marv fondly from the old Mon Plaisir Restaurant days. He was positive and upbeat in the workplace and had great sense of humor. He and Hazel were quite a team, always fun to be with.
We are sorry for your loss. Hope his grandchildren inherited the twinkle in his eye.

“ I was sad to read of Marv's passing in the Today paper. My memory of Marv is one of someone who always had something positive to say. He always had a smile on his face and a twinkle in his eye. He was one of the few people I always hoped to see if my day wasn't going quite as well as I wanted because his smile and wonderful outlook could always put a positive spin on anyone's outlook. I hope that you all may keep the memory of that twinkle in his eye at the forefront as you work through your time of grief.

“ Hi Hazel, Carrie, and David,

I am so sorry to hear that Marv passed away. I know that this must be such a hard time for you. While it is such sad news it has caused me to think about and remember a lot of happy times spent with you guys. I don't need to tell you what a great guy Marv was but I can say that out of all my friends "Marv & Haz" are one of a few parents of friends that I consider to be my friends also. You opened your home to me in high school and college and treated me like part of the family. Those were some very fun and happy times. To love Marv was to love his sense of humor and I will always remember the many funny stories and jokes he would tell sitting around your kitchen in Tree Haus.

I am also grateful that I got to see all of you together the summer of '06. Even though Marv was not able to tell a joke he could certainly still laugh at one. I am guessing he smiled and laughed right up to the end.

Marv, Hazel, Carrie, and David - I love you guys and will be thinking of you often as you grieve and celebrate Marv.

Dear Hazel,

We are saddened to hear of Marv's passing and remember you all so fondly.

I have had no less than three calls since yesterday telling me about Marv's passing. Please know that we are thinking about you and Marv and will pause a moment tomorrow at 1PM to remember Marv.....we will be on the trail to the Gates Hut (10th Mtn. Huts) east of Basalt at that time.

Jim Hansen tells me you all may come visit here in Steamboat. We would love to see you. We do keep in touch with Marg and Bill Portow in Ft. C. and they, too, called us. We have been blessed last week with our 2nd grandchild, so the cycle continues....

Our Love and Prayer for Marv to you and your family.

“ Dear Marv and family,

Marv, I will always remember your smile, wit, and sense of humour, even under the most difficult circumstances. I also have implanted in my heart the love that I saw your family give you, the smiles from Carrie and Hazel and your grandchildren when they would come to pick you up. You were and will always be an inspiration to me.

"When life throws you lemons, you make lemonade"... a motto we would talk about a lot. My hommie, I will always have you and your family in my heart. Your an amazing man, I will miss our playing dirty scrabble, and the sound of your laughter, which will carry me through my days. Carrie, and Hazel, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family, and always remember how blessed you are to have Marv as a father and a husband. I know how blessed I was just to have him as a friend. I love you.

*Love (your hommie),
Melissa*

“ Dear Fran, Carrie & Hazel,

I read today's obit on Marv - little as I know of you all, I do know some history and have each of you in my prayers. I pray that Marv's passing was one of peace as he was greeted by his Lord on the other side.

May each of you find peace as well as God directs, blesses and challenges in the year ahead.
