

Mary Keaunui

February 23, 2018

Mary Keaunui, 94, peacefully passed away in her sleep on February 23, 2018. Born in Honolulu (1923), she was a talented floral designer, an avid golfer who enjoyed the game well into her 90's, and one who delighted in an occasional white "zin" with good friends. Her aloha spirit, zest for life and infectious smile will be missed by all who loved her. Mary is survived by her daughter, Susan (Jerry) of Fort Collins, grandson Chad (Lesley), great-grandson Aiden of California, as well as 9 step-grandchildren. A graveside service will be held in Honolulu where Mary's ashes will be buried alongside those of her beloved late husband Reginald Keaunui. Special thanks to the residents and staff at Good Samaritan Village – FTC for the love and care expressed during Mary's final years there.
