“ I feel privileged to have known Mary for just a short time, unfortunately at the end of her amazing life. It was an honor to just be in her presence. Her Bunka embroidery should be in a museum, just beautiful. Sincerely, Angie J (Pathway's CNA)

“Mary Shimoda had an overwhelming spirit that immediately filled any room she entered. She had a voice of authority perpetually seasoned with laughter. She was a great story teller who loved a great story, and she humorously appreciated the inevitable irony of everyday life. My photographs preserve her smile and her pride in her family, but fail to capture her effervescent nature. It was my privilege to have known her.
