

Matthew Dennis

September 29, 2022

Matthew Joseph Dennis was born February 4, 2000, in Fort Collins, CO. He was blessed to live his first several years with foster parents Ian and Marilyn Wells who were devoted to Matthew and his sister Makayla with a deep level of commitment and love. Their dedication was instrumental in finding a forever family for both kids together. Matthew and his sister were adopted November 7, 2006, by Edward and Dawn Dennis of Loveland, CO. He grew up with his sisters Lauren (Dennis) McIntosh, Taryn Dennis, and Makayla Dennis. He had an unyielding sense of optimism and adventure, as well as a devotion to God and his relationship to Christ, where he was extensively involved in the youth group at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church. To strengthen his faith, he was blessed to attend World Youth Day in Poland and missions trips to New Mexico and Tanzania Africa. While at Loveland High School he loved music and marching band, soccer, and swimming on the LHS swim team. He qualified for the state swim competition his senior year, and he was very proud of his work helping start the LHS Peer Counseling program. Matthew loved cars and worked at various automotive dealerships in the area, as well as trying his hand at starting his own business in marketing. His last great adventure was to sell all his belongings to buy a sailboat in Massachusetts and “Sail Away” to eventually live on the boat in Florida. Matthew was last heard from on September 29, 2022, off the coast of Long Island, NY. After an extensive search by the USCG was concluded, his family and friends now believe Matthew sailed his last sunset into the arms of Jesus and we all mourn his passing. He is survived by his parents and sisters, brother-in-law, grandmothers Shirley Tidd of Fort Collins, CO and Eileen Stuart of Beverly Hills, FL and many aunts, uncles, cousins, niece, and nephew. Matthew will forever be remembered by his last text; when asked if he was okay, despite his struggles, he replied, "Yes, alive and it's a beautiful sunset".

All are welcome to attend a Memorial Funeral Mass at 11:00 AM, Saturday, November 19, 2022, at St John the Evangelist Church 1730 W 12th Street, Loveland, CO 80537. A reception serving lunch will follow to all who wish to join.

“ My favorite memory of Matthew was when we did a reenactment of the Crucifixion with the youth group at Saint John the Evangelist. He was the only person suited to play Jesus and I am confident that no one could've done a better job. I am so glad for the time I had getting to know Matthew.

My daily rosary had been dedicated to this amazing soul ever since I heard of his news. I have my family and friends praying for him and the whole Dennis family.

We love you so much, Matthew.

“ I wish I would have gotten to know you more, the times we did talk we had a lot in common. Life is crazy. You were such a hard worker, and told me I was one too. Ever since the news I think about you daily, and check the news to see if you're found on an island where you've successfully hypnotized all the animals to be self aware and civilized and can carry conversations. One day.

“ Matthew Matthew Matthew

I sadly watched. Matthew was so obviously excited to sail away to to start his life on his terms. He was so ready for adulthood, equipped by Dawn and Ed, as every child would want, tooled up for adulthood, founded in his family with lived Christian Faith.

So keen to start, that he could not wait another day in harbour before setting sail.

I so wish Matthew had waited one more day.

He appeared so unstoppable, brashly looking forward to adventure, yet, so naive, as we too, have all been at that time.

Matthew should have been by now, regaling friends and family with tough seafaring and life lessons.

Through distance and time and prayer, I miss him so. The world so needed Matthew.

I pray for Dawn, Ed, Makayla, Taryn, Lauren who so filled Matthew's cup and kept it spilling over.

Matthew, Matthew, Matthew, So missed. I miss you.

Ian

Matthew started with us as a quiet and still 2 year old. He grew into a curious and eager learner, very smart and so happy. We loved Matthew. God bless Matthew.

I was thinking of Matthew again this morning checking if there was any new information on him or if his boat was found. His story has been heavy on my heart. We had the same exact boat as Matthew (a Pearson 28 sailboat and our first season too) and left Salem Ma on the same day but headed north. So I felt this connection with him and enjoyed watching his videos he posted and seeing his excitement. I'm so sorry for this huge loss and wish I was still watching his adventures! I'm so happy to know he loved Jesus and realize that was another connection we had as brothers and sisters in Christ. I imagine him enjoying a never ending adventure surrounded in beauty even more captivating than the last sunset he spoke of. Prayers and my deepest sympathy to his family and friends 🙏❤️

“My favorite memory of Matthew was the first time he showed me his room in his house. He showed me all of his nicknacks and where he got them. I was so in love with him then, he could have showed me the spice cabinet, and I would have listened and been thrilled to be there. I am extremely great full for the time I got to spend with him and the side of him he showed me. He was kind, bold, and exceptionally smart. Dennis family, I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Matthew and I worked together at Loveland ford. Once he decided to leave the dealership and work full time on starting his company, i texted him letting him know that he was a hard worker and I enjoyed working with him to which he replied 'likewise. For everything life has thrown at you I couldn't help but be impressed' Matthew had such a drive to be successful that not very many people have. I know not only me but everyone at my dealership will miss him.

“ I've been teaching high school for a decade, and Matt was one of my favorite students ever. He had ambition and confidence to spare, and he really worked to make the world a better place. What others merely thought about or talked about, Matt did. We'll miss you, Matt. Thank you for inspiring me.

Matt was very bright and had great potential. It's disappointing to not be able to watch him achieve his goals. We'll miss you, Matt. Rest in God's loving arms.
