“ To my departed Comrade in Struggle-

*Rise like Lions after slumber
In unvanquishable number,
Shake your chains to earth like dew
Which in sleep had fallen on you-
We are many â?? they are few*

Swinging twice as hard at the barricades for him next time.

“ My sincere condolences to Matt's, parents, family and friends.

Matt was just awarded "Manager of the Year Award" only a couple of weeks ago at our annual company meeting.

He was one of our most valued employees and well liked by everyone.

I sincerely appreciated his strong work ethic, "can do" attitude, and his commitment to teamwork.

On a personal note - he bailed me out more than once when I was in a jam.

He was a great guy - I will miss him.

*Sincerely
-Dag*

“ When a candle is blown out, the candle feels no pain, the candle is untouched.....It's those of us left in the dark without the candles light that are left stumbling around trying to find our way. I will keep all of you in my thoughts. Matt was a great guy and I remember laughing with him in school. I wish you all the best.

“ I was so shocked and saddened to hear that Matt had passed away. He was such a great person and employee. Always had a great attitude, always willing to help with anything, very responsible. Everyone in our department had high regards for him and thought he had a bright future ahead of him. It sounds to me that he has taken his life, and that just leaves me brokenhearted. If only we knew when and how to help people when they have inner struggles, before it was too late. We will probably never completely understand. Matt, this world has lost a very wonderful person, and I hope you have found peace. My thoughts go out to his friends and family, may the fond memories remain with you forever.

“ Matt showed me so much, he opened my eyes to new people and new ways to care about life. I can't believe this... I can't comprehend that he's not here. I will always miss him, I'll always remember him, and I wish so much that I had been there more. My thoughts and prayers are with all who have been left in this wake. I am so sorry, Matt.
