“ We didn't personally know Khi, but our hearts are broken and sad for all of you. We are friends with Bill and Cindy and just want you to know we are thinking about all of you. The days ahead will be trying, but just remember to take it one day at a time. You are an amazing family and with the love and support you have for each other along with faith in God will be the things that get you thru.

“ Mekhi, the past few weeks have been so hard. We love and miss you so much. I've been spending some time with your amazing family these past few weeks, and I want you to know that they are so strong, so full of love and support for each other. Nothing about this is easy, or ever will be easy, to be honest, but you should rest assured that they will take care of each other. There is a big hole in this family that will never be filled. It will also never be forgotten. Your presence is felt every day. Love you, Khi. - Aunt Jessie

“ I am heart-broken to be filling out a tribute to this incredible, bright student. I was Mekhi's 4th and 5th grade teacher, and watched him develop as a creative, capable youngster. He loved to read and he excelled at math. Perhaps he was a bit bored with school because it came so easily to him, but he was a valued member of the classroom whose contributions were meaningful and appreciated by all. I had high expectations of the amazing future that was ahead of him, since he had the ability to excel at whatever he put his mind to. He always had a special place in my heart, as one of the only students who had me as a teacher for 4th and 5th grade. You are in my heart forever, Mekhi. My deepest sympathies to Julian, Peppa, Trevon and the rest of his family.

“ Our deepest sympathy to Peppa and all of Mekhi's family and friends who loved and knew Mekhi. You must be hurting so much. So sorry.

“ Khi,

This was the absolute last thing that I ever thought would happen in my lifetime. I cannot describe the pain and guilt that we as a family have felt this past week and a half. I love and miss you so much Mekhi, and wish I could do anything to hang out with you one more time...

Taking you and Julian to Moab in March of 2017 is one of my favorite memories that I got to share with you bro. I was nervous taking you two boys on a road trip just us, but I knew how much fun it would be. While it was a short trip, it will always be one of the most special vacations I have ever taken, and will always be close to my heart.

I will always miss your beautiful smile, stubbornness and goofy personality that could make anyone laugh. You brightened everyone's day just with your presence and I will forever miss that Khi. This is not a goodbye but a see you later...

I will love you forever & always Khi!

“ I didn't know Mehki, but through pictures and posts posted on Facebook, I saw what a sweet, loving boy he was. My heart goes out to you, Peppa, and all the family. I pray for peace and comfort in the days ahead. I believe memories are a gift from God and even though these memories are so painful now, I know they will bring you comfort later on. He will live in your heart forever. Love to all of you.
