

Melanie Lynn Quick

August 24, 1956 - November 5, 2021

Melanie Lynn Quick, 65, of Berthoud, died on November 5, 2021 at McKee Medical Center in Loveland.

Melanie was born in Denver on August 24, 1956 to parents Robert and Donna Colhour. Soon after, the family settled in Loveland, Colorado, where Melanie and her brother grew up. After graduating from Loveland High School in 1974, Melanie enlisted in the United States Navy.

After completing her military service, Melanie dedicated her time to raising her two children and also opened her own business. Quick Clean Services provided residential and commercial window cleaning services to the northern Colorado community.

Melanie enjoyed gardening, camping and spending time in the outdoors. She was always very determined and had a strong work ethic. She was very involved in her church, Church of God, a Worldwide association, where she will be greatly missed.

Melanie is survived by her children, Heather (Brian) Wilhelm, and Robert Quick; grandchildren, Bradley, Caroline and Duke Wilhelm; siblings, Mark and David Colhour; and parents, Robert and Donna Colhour.

A memorial service for Melanie will take place at 11:00 am, Sunday, December 5, 2021, at the YMCA in Johnstown, Colorado.

“ Melanie helped me in so many ways to keep our windows sparkling clean. She had wisdom and gentle kindness. I truly loved having her come to our home, and recommended her abilities to others. I am so sad to know she died. I am thankful for her faithful service and I will miss her. I believe she knew Jesus as her Savior. I thank God for Melanie Colhour Quick.
