“ So sorry to hear that Mike has left his friends and family, Blessings to all his loved ones and I will continue to pray for rest, peace and strength during this time.

Many fond memories of Ron and Mike and myself as we were passing into adults, but could still have the fun that kids enjoy.

So many times in our lives we just get a tiny glimpse of who someone really is deep inside. My oldest siblings Mike lived, walked and told you his exact feelings, beliefs and convictions. There was never a time when you would not know where he stood. But more than this, he stood on his convictions because he would do his do diligence to make shute he felt he could back his convictions up. We often disagreed but always had respect for each other. Mike gad incredible common sense and found people who lacked it questionable. I loved his laughter when he squeezed his eyes closed and laughed with all he had. He lived true to his convictions and loved well. He was a great big brother growing up and always cared for his family as though he did. He missed greatly and will never be forgotten. Mike rest in peace! May your heart be full with joy, knowing you left your mark in our lives forevermore. I love you!❤️
