“ At some point in Michael McNelly's lifetime he bought the book Steppenwolf by Herman Hesse. I know this because he wrote his name inside the front cover. At some point in this books lifetime it ended up in the Book Haven book store in Loveland Colorado. At some point in my life I must have bought the book that Michael McNelly once owned and read. I don't remember buying this book and know that I never read it. Now in 2023 I am retired and have more time to read. I picked the book out of my book case and am reading it now. In this way I have a small connection with Michael McNelly. We are all connected, we all live on thru our connections. Thank you for the book Michael.

“ I just wanted to say that Mike was like my adopted dad- I used to call him "my Colorado dad"- He was sweet and funny with a hint of dorkiness(which was always appreciated)..He was my movie date on quite a few occasions, helped me through a couple of rough moments during my job hunt and even hung up my Christmas lights for my first winter here in Colorado. He will always be cherished and in my heart.

“ My wife Jacalyn and I were saddened to see Mike's obituary in the paper. Mike stayed with my family in Boulder while he was going to CU and he was a fellow Physics Major with me and an ROTC comrade. We got separated after he got out of the Air Force. I retired from the Air Force and worked at CSU for 16 years not knowing he was still in Fort Collins. We were also old fly fishing and snow shoeing buddies. Like ships in the night we missed reconnecting. I will always remember him fondly.

“ Barb,

My condolences to you and Mike's entire family. His passing is a great loss to all.

One small story, I helped Mike buy a home in 1976 on Stanford Road. There was this old chest freezer in the basement that came with the home. Mike wanted it gone. I bought it from him for $50. It was all the two of us could do just getting it out of the basement. I still have that freezer and it is still running!

“ I can only say that the physical world has suffered a great loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Barb, and all of Mike's family as you go through many phases of grief. Mike will never be forgotten-- memories of him will live in so many people's lives--singles events, rafting, volleyball, dances and so many more. Words cannot make a worthy tribute to Mike--you had to know him!

“ Growing up next door the McNelly's I remember hiking up to Horsetooth rock with Mike and Annie. I didn't believe you could do that so they took me. I always used to think "Mr McNelly has the most muscular legs I've ever seen!" He was always the kind of person who spoke volumes without ever having to say anything.

“ Although I only met Mike once or twice, I remember him being really warm and easy to be around, and had a great sense of humor. I know he will be missed very much by all of you. You are all in our hearts and on our minds during this difficult time. I only wish we could be there to offer comfort in person.

Take care,

“ I spent many summers with Mike and Barbara either on the houseboat or rafting. I have been out of touch with them for years but my wonderful memories are still in my mind often. I was so surprised to hear about Mike and Sandy and I am so glad to have been a part of their lives. I am forever grateful for the fabulous times we had. They were a big part of my life. Thank you Mike and Sandy.
Love, Marcia

“ Mike was an honorable & kind man, quiet & complex, who loved Barb deeply. His courage w/ illness & sense of humor about life's challenges was remarkable. He put up with my husband Sandy's silly shenanigans for years on end. Practical jokes volleyed back and forth between Mike, Barb, & Sandy bringing much laughter. The deep friendship between Sandy & Mike helped Sandy feel not so alone as they both battled lung cancer; at times Sandy felt no one really understood what he was going through but Mike. I miss them both knowing their spirits are still with us. Barb's friendship is a gift I cherish. I wish I could be with you today. I send all my love, Joanie

“ As a neighbor of Michael's parents, here in San Diego, I am aware of the devotion that Michael had for his parents -- in spite of the distance separating them. It is with much sadness that I learned of the illness which led to his death.

“ I am a childhood friend of Anne's, and I remember the day the McNelly's moved into the neighborhood (even though I was only six)! I remember spending many days at their house playing in their backyard playhouse or making forts in their backyard between the bushes! They even had the perfect tree to jump out of into a huge pile of leaves! Mike came to my brother's funeral back in February, and it was so good to see him after not seeing him for many years. I am really sorry for your lose. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
