

Mildred Daniel

August 31, 1942 - June 23, 2011

Mildred Elizabeth Daniel passed from this life on June 23, 2011 surrounded by her adoring family. Her trusted Friend and Redeemer Jesus has surely walked her through the incredible new home He designed and built according to her preferences. (Don't make any changes just yet, Momma!) Millie was the beautiful wife of Chet. They shared 48 years together creating, educating, loving, and raising three fairly remarkable humans: Jami Elizabeth (Hood), Anna Kate and Josh Lane as well as two much beloved grandsons Owen Bristow Hood and Dylan Robert Hood. To Millie, most strangers were just friends she hadn't yet made. Always selfless, always seeking ways to serve others, she loved without expecting reciprocation. She was a great cook, rarely relying upon recipes. "Burn it black and scrape it brown" was her mantra. She loved seeds and planted them everywhere. The tiniest bud was a wonder to her childlike spirit. Her garden was lush and wild, mirroring her soul. Millie set an amazing and godly example for her children as daughter to Jessie Ruth Morris, as well as wife, mother, grandmother, niece and friend. A lifelong curiosity drove her to constantly try new things. Often, these discoveries meant Chet must stretch his imagination to convert the attic into a studio, remodel an old farmhouse, build a log cabin near the river or drive across the continent to see some beauty she'd read about in a magazine. She is also survived by her brother: Jack Eckles; by her much adored aunts: Sue Anderson, Wilma Reneau, and Mary Belle Reiseck; and by her all-time favorite uncle, Dr. John Watkins. “ Millie. So many words to describe a classy, charming, delightful lady! You will so be missed! It tore my heart to hear of you being and sick. I am sadden at your passing! I can't believe it! You were a inspiration for me and many. Your love of God and the example is going to give me hope. My prayer is for your loving husband Chet and your wonderful children. Girl you are going to be missed. It is a honor to call you friend.

*love you

“ Millie was a generous and remarkable woman, as everyone knows. She opened her house to both my daughters to live in during the summer when she and Chet would make their yearly trip to the Colorado mountains and helped them gain independence in a safe place. She was always a Godly example to me and those around her, and greatly admired. She will be missed. How wonderful for her, she's probably dancing with Jesus right now!

“ I MET MILLIE MANY YEARS AGO. WE WERE BOTH IN FIFTH GRADE. I HAD JUST ARRIVED FROM TEXAS AND THE NEW KID IN THE BLOCK. MILLIE MADE ME FEEL WELCOME TO THE SCHOOL AND WE EVEN RODE THE SAME SCHOOL BUS. SHE WAS ONE OF THE NICEST GIRL I HAD EVER MET. I WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER THAT AND HER SMILE. CHET, SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS. GOD BLESS YOU.

TO

“ Chet,

We just saw Millie's notice in the paper today and want you to know how sorry we are for you. But our sorrow and grief is not without hope, and for that we rejoice. We have fond memories of our week with you at South Fork and the wonderful fishing. Our Katie is getting married in November. Hard to believe it has been 10 years since we were with you. We have always appreciated you, and probably more than you might think.

Christ be with you and comfort you in this time.
