Natasha Adrianna Baca December 13, 1997 – January 20, 2026

Natasha Adrianna Baca, born December 13, 1997, in Fort Collins, Colorado, passed away unexpectedly on January 20, 2026, at the age of 28.

Natasha's laughter lit up so many lives. She had a way of filling a room with warmth, humor, and presence—something that will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. Her life, though far too short, left a lasting mark on countless hearts.

She is survived by her parents, Mark and Maria Baca; her siblings, Veronica (Jesse Urquiza), Tressa, and Mark Baca; her loving boyfriend Nick Riggs, her dear friend Mitchell Springer; her grandparents, Rudy and Bonnie Baca; her two nieces, Jazlyn and Naielli; and her nephew, Christian, all of Fort Collins, Colorado. She is also lovingly remembered by many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Natasha was preceded in death by her grandparents, Theresa Jimenez Hense, Tim and Trish Hense, and her great-grandparents, Ben and Mary Jimenez.

The family will be holding a viewing on Tuesday, January 27th. Please come as you are—no formal attire necessary.

A Celebration of Life will be held in the coming months, when the weather warms, to honor Natasha's vibrant spirit. Details will be shared with friends and family closer to that time.

We still hear your laughter. Rest easy, beautiful soul.

“ Little cousin, where do I start....im gonna miss your contagious smile, hilarious personality and the way you cared for others! We checked in a lot on each other and I wish I could have checked in with you just one more time. This doesn't seem real or sit right with a lot of us I'm sure. We may never know, but with the little time I had here on earth with you, I'm so thankful. And I will always keep your memory alive. Shine bright in heaven beautiful ❤️

“ I still am waiting to wake up from this nightmare. I waited for you to come into this world. I wore my "Im a Big Sister" shirt to meet you and I even got to pick your name. The memories of us as 2 silly girls dancing to Cheetah Girls, singing karaoke, sleeping on the trampoline, even me video taping you jumping on the couch with the camcorder after mom told you not to while I babysat. My Tashy. You grew up to be such a strong beautiful woman who was my protector. No matter where life took us, we fell back on each other. I was not prepared to say goodbye. I was supposed to go first. A hold a dear place in my heart for you sister. I know you are always with me, watching over me and I cant wait to see you again and tell you.. "OH hey Kevin on the bus!" And hear you reply "what up Kev" I'll love you forever. I'll like you for always. As long as I'm living my baby sister you'll be. 💜

“ I will always remember Natasha's beautiful smile laugh an big heart. Having her around during the times when us sisters (Maria, Tanya, Michelle, and myself) with our kids got together after our grandparents passed to make gifts for all our aunts and uncles for Christmas to remember our grandparents by will be some of the memories with her I will always charish. I'm surely going to miss her deeply especially, her warm hugs and smile everytime I saw her, just like everyone else whose heart she touched. Sorry Trenton and couldn't go see that movie together like we once talked about, wished we would have made it happen. Thinking we had more time, just didn't happen like we thought and wished. I promise you I will be here for your momma, dad and siblings for as long as can. I love you so much Natasha.
