

Nathan Joseph Kinzie

February 14, 1982 - March 19, 2015

Nathan Joseph Kinzie, 'Nate', was age 33 on March 18, when he passed this earthly life.

He was born in Colorado Springs, CO to Joseph and Sandra Kinzie. He is survived by his mother, Sandi, his beloved sister Beth Anne, faithful brother-in-law Andy Bishop, the Sonya Landis-Huff family - sister of Sandi, 'the peoples dog' Zar, the California Ginny Kinzie's which includes Becky Enzi and Bill Kinzie families and many friends in Ft Collins.

Nate attended Front Range Community College and had plans to become a mushroom farmer and maybe fly an airplane someday. Nate was a commercial fisherman on the Murmilach, house-remodeler with Stew Robbins, gardener, blacksmith, welder, tanner of hides and, most recently, a bee keeper with Copoco Honey in Ft Collins. Nathan loved listening to and creating music. Nate and Beth were devoted Swing Dancers. Nate often made his own clothes. He was on the board of Hammer Time in Ft Collins. Nathan valued trains and doing research on many topics. He had an avid mind for vast topics of information. Nate cherished his dog, Zar, 'Connie Chicken Hat', 'Nutter Butter' the squirrel, and desired to raise goats. Nate did food canning, drying and preservation projects and made Sushi.

Nate was fondly known by a good friend as 'Nate the Christian' up in Bellingham, WA. His church growing up was Agape Fellowship now Grace Fellowship Foursquare with Dave and Karen Huntwork, Ft Collins. Nathan became an organ donor upon his death, perhaps in honor of heart recipient and step-father John Canzonieri. Father, Joseph Kinzie, was fondly called 'Papa Joe'.

His remains will be scattered over the mountains, where he spent much time - including kayaking, mountain biking and hiking.

No one will replace him and we will wait a long time to see him, again. Say 'hi' to Nanny for us. Go in peace, Nathan. You are 'one who cared'. "Do not worry. I have a place for you. I am hearing you today. You do hear me. Continue to have peace. See beauty. Bask in Me. Soak up the sun of my grace over you . . .and over your family. Let go the cloak of daily grievance. Run to my heart." - God

There will be a gathering in honor of Nathan on Saturday, March 28, beginning at noon, at 609 N. Timberline Rd. Messages or thoughts can be sent through Sandi Kinzie at 719-359-3995.

“ Lost ... I've really felt a loss.. I must say ever since, I moved away from Fort Collins I've always had hope and a dream of meeting up with one of my best childhood friend's, that molded and always made me think about the good times! Iam very sad to hear I was to late to make contact with him or his family! I wish and hope I can communicate with his family soon. Thanks for all the memories, Eugene Romero. 1919 Derby Crt. 303 641 5827.

“ God bless you, Sandi. I don't know you, but my granddaughter is Kandice and she said she shared with you how her dad, Daryn, (our beloved son) passed away. I certainly know your pain. It sounds like Nate was a believer and that is what is going to give you comfort in the days and years to come. Just cherish all the memories and know that God is Sovereign and will take care of Nate and with all of you. We just don't know why, do we? But, God works everything for the good in those who believe in him. Bless you and family.
In God's grace,

“ I was deeply saddened to read of Nate's passing. Your visits to our house for Drum Lessons will always be remembered. Thinking of you in this time of great loss. You are in my thought and prayers.

We remember having Nathan in our children's church at Agape Fellowship. He was such a gentle young man, and always eager to help. Recently I saw him at Copoco's Honey store with his dog. It took us a minute to figure out where we knew each other, and then made the connection. I was so sad to see his life on this earth was done, but praise God for the hope of eternal life in Jesus Christ. "We do not grieve as those with no hope." 1 Thes. 4:13
