

Pamela Fowler Jordan

March 19, 1949 - December 17, 2024

Pamela Fowler Jordan, born March 19, 1949, in Salt Lake City, Utah, was the youngest of three daughters of Patricia Robinson Fowler and Dr. Joseph Benson Fowler. She grew up in "Country Club Acres," attended Highland High School, and studied at Mackinac College in Michigan. Pam worked in accounting for several corporations throughout her career.

In 2002, Pam married Cy Jordan, whom she met through church in Salt Lake. They moved to Fort Collins in 2003 and built a life together.

Pam is preceded in death by her parents and sister, Joanne Odorizzi. She is survived by her husband, sister Suzanne Bishop (Sun City, AZ), and extended family, including her niece, nephews, and their children and grandchildren.

In honor of Cy's wishes, there will be no funeral service. I invite you to please privately celebrate Pam Jordan's memory in your own ways. Thank you for your understanding during this difficult time.

“ Such great memories growing up with my Auntie. Before she was married she'd come to our house for sleepovers on the weekend. We'd stay up late on Friday and watch nightmare theater. Our favorite was "The Blob". Such great memories. I will miss you - until we meet again - hug my mom and grandma for me. It's not goodbye - just see you later. Love you!! Debbie

I met Pam through facebook. She was loving, kind and such a wonderful friend. She always prayed for me, especially through my husbands health problems. She will always be in my heart and I miss her so much. I know she is with Jesus. Until we meet again...I love you my dear friend.
