As an artist, she usually carried her sketching pad or camera with her camping, fishing, hiking, motorcycle riding, horseback riding, skiing, snowshoeing, as well as water aerobics, playing badminton and bowling. In addition to the outdoors, Pat loved her friends, her pets, and her family. Preceded in death by her parents, and siblings Albert, Ralph "Bud", and Bob Foster. Survived by her children, Sharon (Kevin) Hopkins and Steve Bartling, a sister Barbara J. Davis, and sister-in-law, Eileen Foster. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in her name to Elder Pet Care.

“ My mom Nancy Lou Stonemets is Patsy's cousin. When we lived in Fort Collins I took my mom to Patsy's house and we visited and it was so much fun listening to all the stories they told. I then picked Patsy up on another day with my mom and took both of them over to Beverley Kiesel's house which they were all 3 cousins and oh my gosh what a hoot that was with all 3 of them together!! Patsy was so happy that I took her and my mom to see Beverley as it wasn't long after that Beverley passed away. I then went and picked up Patsy and took her to Beverley's service. She thanked me so much for getting all 3 cousins back together again. She definitely has been missed. I am just sad that all 3 cousins couldn't get together sooner.
