

Peggy Boling

April 14, 2021

Peggy Lea Boling, 74, of Wellington, Colorado passed away on April 14, 2021.

Peggy was born in Hays, KS and grew up in WaKeeney, KS. She moved to Fort Collins as a young adult and graduated from Fort Collins High School in 1964. To pursue a career in education she attended Northeastern Junior College and Colorado State College in Greeley, CO. Peggy went on to work for the Poudre School District from 1969 to 2002. In that time, she received her master's degree from CSU in 1995, earned PSD Teacher of the Year in 1998-1999, and taught K-12 teachers Cooperative Learning throughout the country.

Peggy married Eugene "Gene" Boling in 1971. Her hobbies included dancing with Gene, playing piano at Timnath Presbyterian Church, reading, doing crossword puzzles, and directing the church choir for 20 years. And while not necessarily a hobby, she had the energy to iron everything, including jeans; stay up late to grade papers and wrapping presents. She loved teaching, especially American History, she loved music and she gave great hugs.

Peggy is survived by her husband, Gene; daughter Kate (Danny) Young of Fort Collins; son Justin (Elaina) Boling of Fort Collins; 7 grandchildren, Hazen, Nora, Ki, Gavin, Miles, Ella, and Charlie; siblings Carlene (Robert Oakley)

Voerding, and Cindy (Lonnie) Younger. She was preceded in death by her parents James and Mildred Pickering.

A Memorial Service will be held at 10:30am on Friday, July 23, 2021 at Timnath Presbyterian Church.

“ Hi Gene, Kate and Justin, So sorry for your loss of Peggy. I always liked talking to Peggy and Gene at the Charco Broiler. Peggy was always very nice to me. Of course Gene and I go back a long way. Back as far as 1965. I'm sure Peggy is in very good hands now and no more pain. Bless all of you.

“ Peggy and Gene had their CSU Ram Volleyball season tickets right in front of ours and it was always a pleasure to see them both and chat about the players and the games. Peggy was wicked smart and sassy and I can only imagine was an effective and fantastic teacher. Blessings to the Boling Family.

“ My condolences to the family of Peggy Boling. I'm so sorry for your loss.

Mrs. Boling was also my fifth grade teacher at Moore Elementary school, although at the time she was Miss Pickering. That year we had a child prodigy similar to the fictitious character Sheldon Cooper in the "Young Sheldon" television series. Mrs. Boling handled the year wonderfully, giving him all the extra attention necessary. Mrs Boling also was involved in the choir at Westminster Presbyterian church in Ft. Collins, where my family attended, and I'm sure influenced my love of music. She was a beautiful person inside and out and will be missed.

“ Teaching with Peg for all those years brought so many memories, I don't know where to start. Peg was an excellent teacher, but even more than that, an amazing woman of character and faith, a friend, and a role model for all of us who were lucky enough to find ourselves in her orbit.

Gene, Kate, and Justin, my heart aches for your family as you find your way now without her beautiful smile with you each day. Know that she made an impact on many, many people in this world. Her legacy on earth is as deep and strong as her rejoicing in heaven with the angels is now. God bless you all.

“ Gene, Kate, and Justin, I am so sorry for your loss! I have so many wonderful memories of Peggy. I had Peggy for 5th grade Social Studies at Moore Elementary. I babysat for Kate and Justin and had so much fun with them. When I married my first husband Walt, Peggy played the organ for my wedding. Peggy was just such a beautiful person and she definitely will be missed.
