

Peter Richard Constable

August 30, 1961 - November 14, 2014

Peter Richard Constable, of Fort Collins, CO, died at Fort Collins Health Care Center on November 14, after a long and valiant struggle with multiple sclerosis. He was 53.

Born on August 30, 1961, he grew up in Darien, CT, graduating from Darien High School in 1979. He then worked at two popular local restaurants, Chuck's Steak House and Backstreet, before moving to Colorado in 1989.

During his childhood, Peter acquired a deep love for the open spaces of the American West from family camping trips, which influenced his decision to leave the East coast. Moving first to Durango, he also lived in Denver before settling in Fort Collins. He always loved the outdoors and working with his hands, becoming a skilled roofer and welder until illness forced his early retirement. In his spare time, he enjoyed target shooting, whitewater rafting, and was an avid Harley-Davidson rider. He had a gentle demeanor and a dry, incisive sense of humor, which will be remembered, and missed, by many.

He is survived by his father Richard Constable, his siblings Tom and Martha, his niece Eleanor McGuirk, and his beloved cat Dharma.

A family memorial celebration will be held at a future date. Donations may be made in Peter's memory to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, P.O. Box 4527, New York, NY 10163, or at nationalmssociety.org.
