“ Becky,

You touched the hearts and lives of many people. You had a smile that would light up any room. You were always there for me. You were a sounding board, a support system, or you were there just to put me in my place. I love you and miss you very much. You will always be in my heart and prayers.

I lova, Lova, Lova you!

Your sister and friend,

Wendy

“ Chuck requested that I let you all know how deeply sorry we are for your loss. Words seem inadequate at a time like this but know that you, Solomon, and the family and friends are in our thoughts and prayers. Let Jesus bring you peace and comfort.

“ I cannot imagine your grief of losing Becky so suddenly. I have you all in my prayers. May the angels surround you with the comfort of friends and family at this time. Becky lives now in the unconditional love of God and with our family that has passed on before us. May your belief in the Communion of Saints bring you peace.

I love the prayer that was on the bedside table of Aunt Frances. I will pass on to you now her "Prayer for Healing"

*Angels Among Us
Pray for us and with us*

Jesus heal me, heal the things that you see wrong in me. Go to the very roots of my disease, healing where I do not even know that I am sick. Transform me. Change me. Heal me as a doctor who is my Lord. Send me in new directions that I have never before seen, and perhaps cannot understand. Jesus, only in this way can you make me whole, and so I simply put myself in your hands saying, "Jesus, doctor of my life, do all that you have to do, but please make me whole and well. Thank you Lord."

*Love,
Linda*

“ I am Becky's cousin. My father (Larry) and her mother (Arlene) were brother and sister. As adults, I did not know Becky well but I do know that her sunny and loving soul managed to shine throughout her life despite the ravages of a disease that has consumed many in our family. May the knowledge that Becky's light and love are still with us bring comfort. Love, Patty.

“ Becky and I shared so many childhood adventures...and a little bit of mischief! Our birthdays are 1 year + 1 day apart and for years she would call me to wish us both a happy birthday, no matter where she was living at the time. I will remember her lively spirit and carry the sound of her laughter in my heart and mind forever. Rest In Peace, Becky.

“ Becky was about 2 years older than me and we were always very close. I will miss her very much. She was not perfect, but no one is. Becky definitely loved her God and she trusted in Jesus Christ as her savior. There is no doubt in my mind that she is in the presence of God now and I know she is happy to be there. May we all be reunited with her in heaven some day. Solomon, Amy and Mariah, I know your loss is great but be assured that you are still family and we will all see you again soon.

Love, Joe

“ Becky was a beautiful person always so friendly and full of life I have often thought of her but over the years lost touch, I always thought that one day we would get together and laugh about all the old times and silly things we did she is forever in my heart.
