

Richard Leroy Corl

August 31, 1932 - December 18, 2016

Richard L. Corl, age 84, died from complications of Parkinson's on December 18, 2016 at the Good Samaritan Society in Fort Collins, Colorado. He was born in Elwell, Michigan to Cliden and Nellie (Baker) Corl, and is survived by a sister, Lucille (Corl) Carlson. Richard graduated from high school at age 16 and then attended General Motors Institute where he majored in Engineering. In 1952, Richard met Helen (Cate), who was to be the love of his life and wife for 61 years. Richard enlisted in the Air Force, and he and his bride moved to San Antonio, Texas to complete his enlistment. Richard retired from General Motors after over 37 years of service, and in 1988 they moved to Fort Collins, Colorado. He is survived by three children, Mary Ann (Corl) Ryan (John), Richard Corl (Lori) and John Corl (Cindy), nine grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren and his beloved dog Beau.

Richard had many hobbies such as camping, fishing and woodworking. He was known to all as selfless and generous, volunteering his time to a variety of service organizations such as the Lions Club, Poudre Valley Hospital and the Lincoln Center, and donating over 36 gallons of blood in his lifetime. He was a Master Mason and was active in his church.

A Memorial Service will be held at Christ United Methodist Church in Fort Collins, on Wednesday, December 21st at 2:00 p.m. Memorials can be made to the Good Samaritan Society, Christ United Methodist Church or the Larimer County Humane Society.
