“ We remember Richard riding his big wheel in the cul-de-sac with his brother and the other neighborhood kids. He had a gentle spirit and a distinct giggle that makes us smile when we think of him. We are so sorry for your loss and you are in our prayers.

“ Rich, though we never never each other in life, I am coming to know you so well through the gentle, loving words of your mom and dad. I am writing your story so the world will come to know you, and how & why you died. Your death was not, my Friend, in vain. Your story will be told so that many other lives may be saved. And I promise you, each October 4 when I celebrate my birthday, I will be calling her mom to help her through yours . . . I feel honored we shared the same birthday. May millions of others be spared your fate because you were a valiant warrior for a yet unnamed cause.

*With Love,

“ I had the pleasure of having Richard as a student of mine in Geometry and Algebra II while I was a teacher at Rocky Mountain High School. He was a great student and a fine gentleman, and I was very sad to learn of his untimely passing.

“ I just heard of Rich's passing and am saddened to hear the news. Rich was always a great guy, and in fact was one of the first to reach out to me when I was the new kid after moving to Ft. Collins in 7th grade and for that I'm eternally grateful. He had an infectious smile and larger than life personality. Somewhere in Heaven, he's making someone's day a little bit better. I offer my sympathies to the Farver family for your tremendous loss; but know you raised a great man.

“ Rich and I sat next to each other at his job in San Diego. Many fun conversations were had ranging from everything such as Casa Bonita actually being a real place, to How he ended his bicycle racing career. Rich will be missed, and I'm only sorry that I didn't have a chance to say goodbye and wish him well.

“ Rich was a funny guy. From his orange Filas at Webber to spinning cookies in the snowy school parking lot after Saturday morning basketball practice, among many other things. He will be missed from Phoenix, AZ.

I was saddened to read about Rich. I remember our first Halloween in Ft Collins, going to your house in the neighborhood with my son, Jamie. Remember those times and smile. May God give you comfort and peace ... for He is able.

“ When I read the notice in the paper about Richard's death, my mind was filled with the image of a little, shy, smiling blond kindergartener. I was one of the moms who drove the carpool that Richard was in for Mr. Potter's kindergarten class. My son, Dylan, along with Jarrod, Erika, and Richard, were in the same class. My heart breaks for you, his family, and I will pray for him and for you. He was a sweet, kind little boy, and I'm sure he grew up to be a wonderful man. May God bless...Ruth Usrey and family

“ I will always remember playing basketball at Rocky with Rich. I can remember practices with him, games and playing pickup ball like it was yesterday. Rich will be very missed, I will always picture him as a high school kid playing ball and giving me a hard time always with a smile and a joke. I saw Rich sparingly after high school but whenever we ran into each other it was like we were picking up right where we left off, like no time had passed between meetings. I know when I see him again we'll be joking around like no time has passed.

“ Unbelievable! There are so many memories of Rich...and most of them are crazy! I first met Rich the beginning of our freshman year at CSU in the dorm. I think since he was from Ft. C he was the one to show us girls around to the mall and drive us there in his brat. That was an adventure in itself since it got very cold sitting in the back with the handlebars in winter. Then the time where he is wearing a 70's polyester womens jumpsuit and prancing around...There is so much we are all going to miss out on since he is no longer here. Rich is definitely one of the best guys I know, and to his family, I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I will remember Farv for his ability to simply enjoy life. He was always laughing, and in typical Farver fashion, was really loud at the same time. I can still picture to this day that hilarious Subaru Brat he bought, and despite all the ridicule we could throw at him, he just went on loving that car. I'd see him pull up in that thing and it took all I had to keep from breaking out in a smile. I wanted to smile, but then he'd know he won, and my trash talking would be worthless. We had been out of contact for many years, but what I heard about his life out in California seemed fitting for such a free spirit. You raised a wonderful son.
