“ Good morning Cindy

My name is Donn DeCoursey. Rich worked for me for many years at the ARS office here in Fort Collins. I am so sorry to see of his passing, but I know that he is a very happy person and with the Lord. Rich was such a pleasant person to work with, so humble and knowledgeable. There was not a single person that I ever worked with such a pleasant personality. Your writeup in the newspaper yesterday was a very accurate description of Rich as I knew him. I know that you will miss him very much, but we know where he is now and I know he is happy even though he is aware of the pain felt by those of us left behind. I have read enough descriptions of heaven by those who have had a near death experiences, in their brief visits there, to know that he is not in any pain or anguish only with the Lord and experiencing the peace and love that is all around him. Of all the descriptions of heaven and their experiences there's not a single one that wanted to come back to earth. So even though we mourn his leaving, we can take solace and comfort in our knowledge of where he is in heaven. I will always remember Rich, I know of no other person with an attitude like his as far as emulating Christ here on earth. God bless you Cindy and your whole family.

“ I remember Cindy telling me about her love-interest Rich, before I'd had a chance to meet him in person. She was so in love and enthusiastic about how wonderful he was. I can still picture her face glowing with happiness, and her gestures as she told me of how she'd first noticed and met him. My spouse Kelly and I offer our love and sympathy to Cindy and their whole family at this sad time.
