“ Richard was my patient at the Heart Center. He really was "my" patient. We bonded over us both being from the east coast, our love of good food and travel. I loved how he always asked about my children and my husband when we saw each other. Over the years and the visits, I got to know how very much he loved his wife and his family. I was devastated by the loss of one of my very most favorite patients (I know I am not supposed to have favorites, but he really was one of my faves). I will miss his smiles, his hugs and his larger than life presence. Rosalie, I am so very sorry for your loss!!

“ Uncle Rich was my Godfather as well. I did not know that he was also my cousin Karen's Godfather. My Uncle Rich was an academic and modeled the joy of reading many times over. His quick wit, his easy laugh will be missed. I have memories all the way back to Old Bridge and the picnics in the back yard "with the big hill". More recently, but still ancient history at this point, we visited Fort Collins with my small daughter. We went to the Zoo and Uncle Rich had to carry his great niece from the car as she was too heavy for me to pick up completely zonked out. I loved my Uncle and always will keep a warm place in my heart for him.

“ The trips and vacations Laszlo and I shared with Richie and Rosalie were all wonderful and always enjoyable. Especially the cruise to Alaska. But along with those were the dinners and friendship we shared. Movies and pizza in Bradley Beach. Staying in a cabin at the Grand Tetons while hearing a bear outside. Richie always knew the best places to eat and areas with the best scenery. He would take Laszlo into the mountains so Las could fly fish and we spent many evenings enjoying each other's company.
We will miss him dearly but always remember him in our prayers.

“ Uncle Rich is my godfather and I have memories as far back as barbecues in Old Bridge and family Christmas dinners in Little Silver. Even when they moved to Colorado, we have great family memories together in Williamsburg Va , visiting in Colorado and vacationing together in Vegas celebrating our anniversary one trip and Colleen and Jeff’s wedding the next. Uncle Rich is a real family man who is especially happy to be grandfather to his beautiful grandchildren. He will be greatly missed at all future family gatherings but I know he will be with us in spirit. Rest In Peace Uncle Rich. We love you.

“ Uncle Rich is my God father. I remember fun parties in their back yard in Old Bridge and family Christmas dinners together in Little Silver. Even when they moved to Colorado, we have great memories being together in Williamsburg Va, visiting in Colorado and vacationing together in Vegas. He is especially fond of being a grandfather and the grandkids he loves so much. He will be greatly missed at all our future family gatherings but I know he will always be with us in spirit. “ One of my favorite memories of Rich is when he and Rosalie and myself and spouse went on a cruise to Alaska together. It was the Mylott's first cruise and as the ship left the dock the loudspeaker played the song “North to Alaska”. Richie raised his right arm and started singing along. I've enjoyed anytime we spent together and other trips with them.

I also remember years ago, when I had knee surgery, Richie took me to physical therapy. His patience and empathy were much appreciated. I'm glad to be his sister-in-law. He will be sorely missed but always in our thoughts prayers and hearts along with his wonderful family. I could probably write a “book of memories” and I'm grateful for all of them and having been a part of his life. Rest in the peace of God's love.

Shared many sales calls together with Dick (he at SFW, me at The Record) and he was a consummate pro. Always learned something from him, every time we teamed up. Rest in peace. Bob Moe
