“ I delivered Meals on Wheels to Bob for a long time every Thursday. He was a real classy guy. So glad I was able to get to know him and share a bite of his Cinnabons!

Love you, buddy.

“ I worked with Bob at MasterCraft 40 years ago, and I remember him as the consummate professional in every aspect of his work. Bob taught me a great deal about the business, and I will always be grateful. I enjoyed his sense of humor, as well, and will always remember him fondly.

My deepest condolences to his family, and will keep you all in my prayers.

“ Sheldon and I first met Bob when he graciously shared his family Christmas with us and his soon-to-be daughter-in-law, our daughter Sara. We instantly fell in love with him and his wry sense of humor. We have a daily reminder of Bob through his art, prominently displayed in our home. With or without that tangible presence, Bob will live forever in our hearts. We will miss him forever, and be grateful for the eternal gift he gave us, Adam, a wonderful husband and father. We love you, Bob
