

Robert A. Yocum

June 4, 2019

Bob Yocum died surrounded by loved ones on June 4th, 2019. Bob was a man who lived to tell the stories of his adventures across the eight decades of his life. Many of his journeys were unplanned. All were memorable. Bob traveled by planes, trains, automobiles, motorhomes, motorcycles, bicycle, and boats, to name a few. When he took his first solo train ride from Iowa to Utah he was only 11 years old.

He was born in Missouri on November 22, 1937, raised in Iowa, and traveled the world with his wife, Mary Porter Yocum. Bob loved his family. He looked out for their well-being and maintained a mid-western mindset his whole life. He organized family life through collective and individual adventures.

Bob's legacy includes traveling with Mary to Australia, New Zealand, Africa, Russia, Alaska, Europe, and many other adventures as a family of five. It was also important for him to take a trip with each of his daughters, such as a motorcycle trip with daughter Sandy of 12,000 miles (1,200 in one day), a tandem bicycle trip (called the Iowa 150) across the nation with daughter Kathleen of 5,210 miles (100 days), and a six-week tour of Asia with his youngest daughter Kristin. He joined his grandson Zachary in adaptive racing and took his grandson Taylor on his first ski trip at three years old.

Bob had a passion for sailing, fishing, and floating on the Mississippi. In fact, after entering hospice care, his family joined him on his final boating adventure the Thursday before he passed away.

“ Mary and family,

Just wanted to leave a short note to say what a great and friendly neighbor Bob was. Bob and I first met when he stopped me about six years ago while I was running down LaVina out to Douglas Lake. He introduced himself and we became fast friends after that. When he saw me running or walking my two Bernese Mountain dogs on the road he always stopped to visit and catch up on things. One day he invited me over and gave me the grand tour of your wonderful home, he was very proud of the house and the great view you have. Bob was easy going, friendly, funny and a great human being. It was a special privilege to have known Bob. God bless you and your family.

“ I am saddened to hear of Bob's passing. I will never forget the great times we had following him and Kathy on the Iowa 150. Or all the reunion parties at the lake. As I bike he will always be with me.

“ I'll always remember Bob's gregarious nature, generosity and easy laugh. When I think about the story of Bob yelling at Kathleen to to pedal harder going up a hill and her running behind shouting that she wasn't on the tandem bike yet, it still makes me laugh. Bob was very down to earth and a kind soul. I'll miss knowing that he's still adventuring on this earth, but his spirit will still be here. Jean Arnold
