

Roger Paul Hass

October 13, 1946 - December 30, 2021

Roger Paul Hass, 75, of Fort Collins, Colorado, died December 30, 2021.

Roger was born October 13th, 1946 in Fremont, Nebraska to parents Elmer and Hope Hass. In Roger's high school years Roger was an accomplished wrestler and played the trumpet. In Fremont, Roger met, fell in love, and married Susan Freeman on July 21, 1967. In 1966 Roger joined the United States Marine Corps reserves and was honorably discharged after 6 years while obtaining the rank of Sergeant. In 1976 Roger, Sue and the kids moved to Kansas City, KS where he managed a foundry for 13 years after which he started a general contractor business called Select Builders. In 1989, the family relocated to Fort Collins, where Roger continued his craft as a general contractor. He owned and operated Select Builders in Fort Collins for nearly 30 years. After Roger sold his business in 2011 he remained active and continued to work on home improvement projects, he kept working for clients and continued his craft in wood working through September 2021.

Roger enjoyed everything outdoors, including hunting and fishing. Throughout Roger's entire life, he enjoyed boating and spending time on the water including fishing and water skiing. Although Roger was dedicated to his craft and clients, he always made time for his family, always putting them first. He never missed a game or school event, showing his support always to his family. Roger was dedicated to his Christian faith and served as trustee, usher and attended Bible study his entire life. Roger was very patriotic and proud of his service in the Marine Corps, which he passed on to his son Brian, who also served in the Marine Corp. In his work and his life, Roger was a Christian and family man.

Roger is survived by his beloved wife, Susan Hass; daughter Trisha Hass; son, Brian (Kristina) Hass; grandchildren, Caleb, Jakob, Brady, Emily, and Sara; and sister, Trudy (Bob) Jones.

“ Sue, we just read this today and Chuck and I are so sorry for your loss. We have great memories of you and Roger way back in our Faith Church days and when Roger finished our basement in the foothills near Masonville. I am so sorry we missed his memorial service today, we would have come to honor his memory as he so well deserved. God bless you and your family.

“ We were so blessed to have Roger in our lives. He was a wonderful Uncle and friend. We will treasure the memories of Family BBQ's, picnics, birthdays and special celebrations. He brought so much support, love and laughter to everyone. I loved watching him with the kids. He would play with them on the floor, let them climb in his lap, throw a ball around and always made them feel loved and special. He was a great man whom we loved and admired so much. He will be greatly missed.

“ To the family of Roger Hass, I'm so sorry for your loss. If Steve was alive he would know where all the pictures are. He talked about him all the time and related some very interesting stories. So maybe they have met again after all these years. Cherish the memories and happy times.

“ I only met Roger once on my sister's wedding to Brian in May 2021. He married my sister and now brother-in-law. What a ceremony. He had everyone smiling and crying. You could see his glowing soul and love for the Lord. He was so kind and loving to me and he did not even know me. I wish I was able to know him more. My loving thoughts and prayers are with everyone who is mourning the loss of this beautiful soul. Surely his is smiling down on us as he lives in the home of Lord. Roger you will be greatly missed by so many people.
