

Ron Doescher

July 10, 2025

Ron Doescher, 66, of Severance passed away peacefully on July 10 after a long valiant fight with cancer. Ron fought to the very end. He was a beloved husband, a devoted father, cherished grandpa, loving son and son-in-law and wonderful brother. Ron will be remembered for his kind, gentle and loving spirit.

He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away. Revelation 21:4.

A private family service will be held.

“ Thank you, Ron.

For accepting me into your life, for caring my for mom and for always being your true self. Ron was one of a kind, had nothing to prove and was forever unbothered- by anything! Ron was unashamed and unapologetically his own person, for which I greatly admire and am very honored to have known! Thank you, for being you! And for never needing anything more from those around you! It is a sincere pleasure to know when somebody accepts you for just who you are- and Ron was this person for me- I am forever grateful. Much love.

“ I worked with Ron indirectly for the last 6 years. We were on the facility emergency response team together. He was always so sharp and calm, even if our situation was stressful. Even seeing this picture of him on the beach makes me wish our paths crossed more at work. I'm sure I could have learned perspective and life lessons from him. He will be sorely missed and never forgotten. Peace be with you, Ron.

“ I have fond memories of growing up as Ron’s cousin. While I have not seen Ron in probably 50 years I am sad we will never get the chance to reconnect.
