

Sally Conroy

July 31, 2022

Sally Lyn Conroy, age 61, of Fort Collins, Colorado, passed away on July 31, 2022.

Sally was born in Kettering, Ohio December 28, 1960 to parents Keith and Marilyn McNinch. She spent her early childhood in Centerville, Ohio before the family relocated to Big Piney, Wyoming to operate the family cattle ranch and where she graduated from high school. Sally earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Wyoming and went on to become a Physical Therapy Assistant.

In 1994, Sally met Kevin Conroy and the two were married on October 14, 1996, in Fort Collins, Colorado. She loved her work as a PTA with her friends and spent several years at Sierra Vista Healthcare in Loveland, before working for the last decade at Spring Creek Healthcare, where she is greatly missed.

Sally enjoyed life, she loved to cook and kept a tidy home where people were always welcome. She enjoyed traveling and eating different cuisines. Her dogs were important to her; over the years, she and Kevin had 6 Schnauzers and a Havanese.

Sally is survived by her husband, Kevin Conroy; step-daughter, Erin (Joshua)

Cave; and brothers Keith McNinch and Randy McNinch. She was preceded in death by her parents and her twin brother Roger McNinch.

Memorial donations may be made to the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network at pancan.org. Please visit Sally's tribute page at goesfuneralcare.com to share condolences with her family.

“ Kevin,

I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Sally was a fighter and gave it her best. I enjoyed the few visits we had with you and her these last few years. Please know that you are in my prayers during this most difficult time.
