

Sharon Blanchard

December 27, 2020

Sharon Blanchard of Fort Collins, Colorado passed away December 27, 2020 from Covid-19 related complications.

Sharon was the only child of Jo "Mimi" and Logan Bunting. Following in her mother's footsteps she attended university art school.

She will be remembered for her love of sweets, trips in the country and the finer things in life. Her optimism and unwavering belief that the future would always hold better fortunes for her, her family and the human race were unparalleled. She was an original thinker and a lover of the goodness in people. With patience, understanding and conviction she wove her mesh world about her. Everyone dreams. Through her writing, Sharon breathed life into the core emotions and dreams of the human race.

Sharon is survived by her husband Bob Blanchard, her daughter Cheryl McKague, her sons Doug Blanchard and Ken Blanchard and grandchildren, Lauren and Hanna McKague.

Tribute Wall

“ Sharon Blanchard

October 25, 2022 at 06:14 PM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

theresa blanchard - January 07, 2021 at 12:20 AM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

theresa blanchard - January 07, 2021 at 12:19 AM

TB

“ I loved Sharon, my mother-in-law, mostly because she loved to get out and enjoy life. She up and moved with Bob to Colorado to be near her only daughter and granddaughters, after living in MI her whole life, pretty impressive. When Ken and I would pick her up for outings, she enjoyed every minute from the ride up winding mountain roads to ice cream cones to a brand alexander with dinner. She knew what she wanted to do which I admired. She loved taffy! Our common bond was eating, especially sweets, plus the love of books, stamps, stationary. I'm only sorry we didn't get to spend more time with her in the later years.

theresa blanchard - January 07, 2021 at 12:14 AM