“ Hey "Big Daddy" one of your favorite intro's to your old friends when you seen us. We loved the fun the football games, the riding the campfires. Your kids grew up before our very eyes. We had some amazing fun times when we lived near by in Livermore, Gate 4. Probably some of the best times of our life was living on that Mountain. What a group of good friends we had. Have missed you all since we moved to Wyoming. Time however never stands still. Be our guardian Angel now. We're getting older each and everyday. There is hope in the fact that Loretta Lynn is still alive at 83. And she can still sing Coal Miners daughter! You my friend were full of life and that is what we celebrate today and forever.

“ I am devastated. "Greek" was always such an upbeat positive presence. I genuinely loved him, he was a dear friend for over 30 years. My thoughts are with you, Steffani and Chelsea. He was a very special person. Being around him was always fun and funny. With love and sadness,

“I was so surprised and saddened to hear of Greek's passing. He worked for/ with me about 7 or 8 years ago for a season. We spent a lot of good days together that Summer. H also had some kind words when my Father passed away. I ran into him a couple times since. Loved the Wendy's Stories. This man truly lived his life on his own terms and had a truly kind heart.
