“ On July 15, 1976, Steve was visiting with us in Florida when I went into labor. He kept me laughing until I gave birth. He was funny and talented with a gift for the piano. Steve was a very happy soul full of life. May he RIP...

“ I remember I was about 5 years old, laying on my dads blue Suzuki motorcycle begging him for a ride. He throws an oversized helmet on me and says comon. Then tells me to hang onto the gas tank cap. We go up the road and the helmet is so big that it bounces from one of his arms to the other from the wind. That was what made me love bikes. Fast forward a few years and my dad starts bringing me to pappys run in montville. Then a few years later, I finally get to go to pappys run with my dad and were on our own bikes. Probably one of the best father son days I can remember. I miss you dad. I think about you and the few times we had together often.

When I get to heaven, I'll ride with you again

Happy 15th anniversary my darling . I miss you every single minute of every passing day ... You are the song in my heart and I Love you forever and one day..

"FOR YOU" by John Denver

*Just to look in your eyes again
Just to lay in your arms
Just to be the first one always there for you
Just to live in your laughter
Just to sing in your heart
Just to be everyone of your dreams come true
Just to sit by your windows
Just to touch in the night
Just to offer a prayer each day for you
Just to long for your kisses
Just to dream of your sighs
Just to know that I'd give my life for you.
For you all the rest of my life
For you all the best of my life
For you alone, only for you.
Just to wake up each morning
Just to have you by my side
Just to know that you're never really far away
Just a reason for living
Just to say I adore
Just to know that you're here in my heart to stay.
For you all the rest of my life
For you all the best of my life
For you alone, only for you.
Just the words of a love song
Just the beat of my heart
Just the pledge of my life, my love for you.
your Rajini*

“ Steve you will always be my favorite. You and I had a bond of love and friendship since the day we met. I would reprimand you we would laugh and I would cry. You were my brother that I lost. We would call each other just to chat sometimes I was your testing ground for a new Bluetooth in your car or just to say hey .I miss you my dear brother-in-law but I will always think of you playing your piano,singing a song or just smiling and laughing. You taught me how to make quiche You would say whose quiche is better. I would reply yours but mine is perfected . LoL Finally I would like to thank your brother Brad for giving me a wonderful family full of talent,love, laughter and caring people.Save a place for Brad and I. Until we meet again Aurevoir Mon dieaux. Your sis -in-law Karen

“ I remember
Wilma looking for Fred
Our private joke...
The first time we met
Your eyes looked into mine
Endearing and full of love ...
When you touched my face ever so gently
I felt your soft heart...
Our first kiss
Passionate and filled with desire...
Your music filled my heart and soul with
All of your being...
You loved me unconditionally
Through good times and bad...
You kept me safe
Protected me every passing minute of our days...
We cried and laughed together
Over sad times, silly times ,funny times and happy times...
You gave me courage
To do things I have never done before...
You said I was beautiful even when there
Were days when I didn't feel beautiful...
You loved my cooking and I loved yours
Especially your quiche which you made with pride...
Your love of travel
And all the fun and adventures we shared...
Your love like the ocean
So calming and reassuring...
Our family holidays
Full of joy and laughter...
Our nights were starry
Your loving arms around me so secure..
Your smile so charismatic
Mischievous and playful...
Your deep love of family and friends
Both yours and mine...

*There are endless memories I have of you my darling
Which I will cherish...
Our love will never end
For in our hearts we will always be together forever and that one day...
Till we are in each other's arms again...
I love you my husband, my lover, my best friend, my soulmate, my guardian angel, my piano man....

“ Hi ! I'm Gulu. Steve's wife & my wife, Asha, are sisters. It might surprise you to know that Steve married into a family that has grown to 78. My wife decided I should read some of their tributes to Steve. Lucky me !!!

So many times we've listened to speakers introduce other speakers who introduced more speakers. Each promised not to bore you anymore than necessary and to keep it short. I make no such promises. So, please get comfortable. Tommy please pass the drinks, Patrick please pass the M&M and Janice has the tissue boxes handy .

So, Steve was a happy fun-loving & perfect guy !!! Seriously ??? Yes, seriously !!! A lot of credit for all the great things he was must go to his family - Randy calls them the 'crew' !!! It's been such an honor to meet Tommy & Rochelle, Patrick, Scott, Randy & Janice, Josh, Cassie, Trevor & Rebecca.

Rajan took a CHANCE. A HUGE CHANCE. ALL ON HER OWN. Not many of us would have. Good thing she did. Rajan & Steve were truly blessed to have found each other. As happy as they have been, so have their families !!!

Steve, you need to know that we let you go so early because you have a job to do. You have to watch over all of us. You better do a great job.

He was such an amazing person and really left a mark on everyone's life, even if they met him only a few times. Steve was charismatic, fun and full of life. I don't think anyone could have not smiled or not laughed when we he was around.

We all really miss him and will always remember his jovial personality and lovely character.

Loves

Rohan

Bhau Steve was always so kind and caring.

Every time we were at a Wedding or Family Reunion, he would ask “Rohan, where’s your guitar? Let’s jam!”. Bhau Steve was so talented in music! He could play the guitar and the piano. He inspired me to take up Piano now on top of the guitar.

I’m so thankful that both Didi Rajan and Bhau Steve picked me up from the airport in Denver. Took me to dinner that night, we walked around the Denver area and allowed me to stay at your home.

I’ll never forget, Bhau Steve showed me how to marinade the Turkey. Turkeys are really heavy! And the food in Thanksgiving day was so delicious! Then we gambled with coins, thank god, because I lost so badly !

After my graduation, I really wanted to come to Denver, but my family already made a flight booking for London and then Bangalore. I wrote a note to visit the U.S. in the coming year to spend 4 days in Denver and especially go fishing with Bhau Steve! I know I could have learnt how to fish in the best possible way from Bhau Steve, after he told me his fishing stories. Me and him kept in touch on Facebook about his fishing trips and how it was fishing season a few months back.

Bhau Steve to me, was not just a Bhau, but also my friend. I loved spending time with him and me and him could talk about anything. I really miss Bhau Steve and always will. He is in a much better place now. I bet he's even jamming on his guitar right now!

Love you both so much.

May Steve's gentle soul rest in eternal peace!

He only spread happiness and joy among his family and friends. We feel privileged to have known him and to have said our farewells. He always had a positive disposition, and if you were feeling low, you felt better when he was around. ?

I recall when our beloved secretary Lorna succumbed to cancer and passed away on my birthday two years ago, Steve was there and sang 'Amazing grace' for her when we got back from the hospital.

The kids loved him so much. when He and Didi Rajan were staying with Mom and Dad at Ppt 2 years ago, he would keep all the children entertained with his funny stories and jokes which left them jumping all over him asking for more!

You can see from the pictures we took with him a week ago how he was clowning around with them so they would not feel scared seeing him in the hospital. Now we don't know how to tell them that their beloved Uncle Steve has left for his heavenly abode.

Steve....you will be dearly missed by our family.

We are truly saddened by the loss of such a kind man and our hearts and prayers are with the entire family during this difficult time. While we didn't spend nearly as much time with Steve (Uncle) as we would have liked, our time together was always special and we will cherish those moments. Over the years, Each of us has been fortunate to have our own wonderful memories and experiences with him. He always wore a smile and added life to every conversation. He was so charismatic when sharing one of his many stories, you couldn't help but be captivated by him. Steve was a fun loving man that enjoyed living life to the fullest and we will miss him greatly!

All our love !!!

Shalini

In the very short time that I met Steve I could immediately feel his warmth and love of life.

Most of all I was always so happy to see Didi Rajan, so loved and happy. They found true love which is not easy to come by. Steve will always be an angel in her life.

Rajini Sage - November 20, 2014 at 09:45 AM

“ It seems like only yesterday I was riding through Connecticut on the back of Steve's bike. I had not long met Steve, but already knew that I hadn't seen my mum that happy in forever, and that was largely down to him. It's really difficult to find the words to express what an amazing guy he was, and the huge amount of condolences and great words I've had in the last few days from all over the world (indeed from some people who only met Steve once), is testament to just how very quickly he could leave a very large impact on someone.

I'm so glad Steve could make it to our wedding, and everyone who was there still talks about how he absolutely nailed Brown Eyed Girl with the band at our reception (check it out on YouTube!). There are a 1000 reasons why I loved Steve, and a 1000 more why I'll miss him but our shared love of music will always be particularly special to me. These are just a few thoughts that have come to mind... So many memories... All I'll say for now is Steve, just you keep on playing that piano in the sky dude, and we'll jam like old times when I get up there. Miss you man. Ravi

“This is love: to fly toward a secret sky, to cause a hundred veils to fall each moment. First to let go of life. Finally, to take a step without feet.”-Rumi

Steve was a man full of love.. pure, real love... he smiled genuinely, laughed heartily and loved deeply...

He made us all sway to his music... the piano man... the one with the rhythm and song... he really was so well fit with the whole family...

It's never easy letting a loved one go... it's always about how they leave US behind.. and how can they leave US alone...

But let's stop and think for a minute... is he really leaving us behind... or alone? WE are still here... celebrating his life... memories of his wonderful times and moments he spent with us... talking about his talents and gifts... So he hasn't LEFT us... he will ALWAYS stay with us... a soul like his will never leave us alone... for it's too powerful, too sweet ...

Speaking of sweet... we (as in the girls, Pavi and I) were talking about Steve.. and talking about all the things we remember about him... the first thing Jiya says is “ He always makes us laugh! Especially when he does his Donald Duck quack”! Aly said she will always remember her 8th birthday in Colorado... Uncle Steve made it so special... and he always laughed and made us happy...

So that says a lot... He always made us laugh and smile.. always looked at the bright side of things.. always made us all feel very special.... and always enjoyed everything to the MAX... That was (uncle) Steve...!

So let's celebrate him... and try to be more like him...I think that would make him content and would be a great honour to him...

Finally...Here's a quote I came across... and immediately reading it, sounded like something Steve would say...

"I think people who truly can live a life in music are telling the world, 'You can have my love, you can have my smiles. Forget the bad parts, you don't need them. Just take the music, the goodness, because it's the very best, and it's the part I give most willingly'"
? George Harrison

Blowing you kisses in the sky....

“ Ramesh & Cherina :

We will always remember Steve's cheerful personality which was really addicting. He was ever ready to help out. When Steve and Rajan came to San Francisco, Steve and Ramesh decided to take on the challenge of painting the deck - it was hard work but they did a decent job. Steve and Ramesh were Home Depot and Do it yourself buddies. Vinnie remembers the home cooked meals he enjoyed at the Sage home during college days. His first car was Steve's car. He kept in touch with most of us by dropping a hello on Facebook. His performance in Shawn and Heather's wedding in Scotland was flawless. We loved his singing and jamming with the guitar and piano. So many wonderful memories. Dear Steve your life is celebrated today and your memory lives on in all of us. Your goodness always admired. As you continue your soul journey, may your angels and guardians carry you gently like the whispering wind to merge with your divinity in eternal bless.

Ohm shanti

Janak, Mona, Aroon and Sonia, and Sid

Steve fit into our HUGE family network like a glove. He celebrated with us at weddings and births and family gatherings. He was part of the family - friendly with everyone, and always ready to join in any of our chats or singing sessions. He got along well with everybody. He never interfered in any family matters. We heard many a story from him about fishing and boats and plane rides. We loved his songs and we loved to listen to him on the piano and guitar.

He loved our Rajan and took care of her as best he could. He kept her smiling and young and happy. This is what endeared him to us.

We will miss your singing and the stories and your good nature, Steve. You were an all around NICE guy! Rest peacefully and keep playing the lovely music.

Love from all of us

Puja :

The Dalai Lama said "Be kind whenever possible. It is always possible.". Every time I think of this quote now, I will always remember our darling, sweet, and kind Uncle Steve. His whole outlook on life was always so positive, and whenever I got to spend even that little time with him, he emanated such a warmth and love of energy. My only regret is not having shared more time with this special man who also shared the same birthday as me.

His messages "You be good to you" always ring true to me in my mind.. My last words to him through Didi Rajan is that I want to sing for him on his birthday this year. God took him into his lap early and for a reason, and I only pray that he can rest in peace knowing that he left behind such loving thoughts and memories for all of us that knew him.

Our dearest Didi has really been such a strong soul survivor this whole ordeal, and we bless her knowing that this is such a difficult time for her. Steve, you are our family rockstar always and forever. We love you.. God Bless you always..

tributes to Steve.

Babs & Chandru :

We will always remember your famous words... Go with the flow!

It was fun time when we were with him... never a dull moment.

Our most poignant memories of Steve were those of him in his cozy home, tinkering around in his veranda and garden where he proudly showed us the barbecue and garden area he had created himself... all the stuff he did in his garage and the little things he did in his home to make it more comfortable.

Rajan and Steve warmly invited us two years ago to their home

... we spent 3 or 4 beautiful days in Fort Collins. Steve would enthusiastically drive us all over ... happy to show us this place he loved. It was wonderful listening to him as he shared with us stories of his past adventures, his growing years, his love for his family and friends. We got to know him so much more then. He was always so cheerful and ever so ready to do things for everyone... a kind and wonderful soul. His talent and love for music so evident as he played for us his favorite songs on the piano and guitar.

Steve, you left our world too early ... we will all miss you, most of all our sister Rajan. You brought her so much happiness all these years and we are ever so grateful for that.

Dear Steve, we thank you for the precious memories you have left with us.

Rest in eternal peace in the Lord's warm embrace !

Michael, Nameeta, Krishaan and Rehan

It has been a true honor to know Uncle Steve. A man who taught us how to live in this world.

How to embrace life fully with 100% enthusiasm, to be happy and make others happy. In the end, he taught us how to leave this world with grace, dignity and still every bit the funny, mischievous piano playing beautiful soul. His heart and his music lives on in all of us. Uncle Steve, may your Spirit soar and may you be eternally Blessed.

We dedicate this quote to you:

May your spirit soar throughout the vast cathedral of your being.

May your mind whirl joyful cartwheels of creativity.

May your heart sing sweet lullabies of timelessness.

All our Love,

aarti, anil, karishma & alysha

you carried the girls on your shoulders when you could and made them believe you were their blues clues "Steve". always asking them what they were up to on facebook chats and played christmas carol duets with them on the baby grand. you created lasting memories with us all and you stole all our hearts with your warm and gentle ways ! but most importantly we thank you for the way you loved Didi Rajan, for taking care of her and putting a smile on her face ! we will miss you dearly. may you rest in peace !

Malaika :

it has been said that He has achieved success :

Who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much;

Who has gained the respect of intelligent men & women and the love of little children;

Who has filled his niche and accomplished his task;

Who has left the world better than he found it;

Who has looked for the best in others and given the best he had;

Whose life was an inspiration

For fifteen years we were so blessed to have you in our lives.

You leave us with beautiful, lasting memories, the kind that can only be looked back on with a smile.

“ Sing us a song you're the piano man.

Steven Sage was born December 15th, 1954 in Norwich, CT. He attended Montville High School then enlisted into the navy, serving his country at the age of 17.

He was and became so much too so many. He was a father, grandfather, husband, brother, and friend. He was loved by all who came into his life. Such joy and laughter he could bring to anyone around him, even a stranger. He had a gravitational pull to him that was undeniable.

In 1999 he met a beautiful, loving and caring woman from Bangalore, India named Rajini. It was love at first sight and he knew she was the one. By the end of that year they were wed. His family then grew to all corners of the world and his love for new culture and adventure grew just the same. He loved to travel and was granted the opportunities to do so with his loving wife.

Music was a big part of who he was. He was a writer as well as a singer and he could play it on anything he could get his hands on, but he was by far the piano man. He would play the most mesmerizing music you have ever heard. You could always feel his heart and soul flowing from his fingers. Sharing those moments with his loved ones were his favorite and it always showed. He had a love for beauty and his wife, children, family, and music were always the most beautiful in his eyes. As long as the music lives on so will he, our piano man.

“ Hey Dad, there’s so much I want to say to you in this letter of goodbye. You inspired me in so many ways. Your whole attitude about life was incredible, if there was an obstacle in your way, the gears would start turning and you would manufacture a way around it whatever it was. I always thought it was genius. When we lived in New Britain, you worked as a body man for a company called ERA. They made the coolest replica cars I had ever seen. It was then that I realized that I we shared a love for cool cars. You used to take me for rides on your motorcycle when I was about 5. I remember holding onto the gas tank telling you to keep going faster and my helmet was so big for me it would sway in the wind between your arms hitting each of them but I was never scared. At that point I knew I was going to have my own bike someday. You always had the coolest, fastest cars and bikes and boy did that trait get handed down to me. I loved our fishing trips we took, and the constant jokes you told to keep everyone laughing and entertained. You were definitely the center of attention and not because you wanted to be or had to be. It just kind of worked out that way all the time and everyone loved it. The stories you told and your crazy animations talking with your entire body it seemed. You always had the most cool looking hats that didn’t look right on anyone but you. I will never forget the things we shared a love for and seeing them will always remind me of you. The songs you sang, the instruments you played, all of your favorite singers, all of this has reminded me of you and always will. Dad you made me who I am today in many different ways and I miss you so much already. I love you Dad

Rest in peace “Piano man”

One side filled with heartache,
The other died with you*

When the world is fast asleep, and*

I do it every day,

that never goes away*

*I hold you tightly within my heart
And there you will remain.
Until the joyous day arrives,
That we will meet again.*

“ Song of Eternity

*You are the music to my soul
The beat to my heart
No matter what the music always kept us together, never truly apart.
You taught me so much
From the keys to my voice
Music was the number one thing
That gave us the most joy out of life.
I would sit in your lap as you played piano
Watching your fingers in awe how fast they would go
I sang the words of the songs that you gave me
Trying so hard to hit each note perfectly
The years went by and I now sat beside you
With a mic in my hand I wanted to show you
You taught me well
You showed me the way
My voice is strong and I promise
To never let it fade
You turned to me and said
That you were proud of me
You knew I would be ok
You would make sure of it every single day.
Your smile got wider as I begin to sing
So happy for all these moments the music would bring.
Thank you for opening my eyes to a different world,
Showing me everything that music had to offer
And always reminding me who I am
Without you and the music I wouldn't understand.
My love for music came from you
I thank you every day.
So I hope you hear these words
And remember what we played
I will finish what we started
Here is a piece for today...*

Each time that we play the music from our hearts

*The connection it made us so much stronger
Each word that's been sung
Each key that's been played
The troubles drift away for a little bit longer
No matter how far we may be
No matter what the future brings
We will always have
The song of eternity*

*You will always be there sitting beside me as I play every note, every key, and sing every word.
Rock the heavens Daddy*
